

Wallneuk North

Prayer Link Letter - July 2010

Warm God of Summer

Warm God of summer delight in us strewer of petals revel in us
ripeners of fruits mellow us in joy
Wake us up to justice

Ruth Burgess, Friends and Enemies, Wild Goose Publication

- Thurs. 1st At this time many people are preparing for their summer holiday - let this be a relaxed and enjoyable time with family and friends.
- Fri. 2nd As Sma' Shot day approaches we think about workers everywhere who do not have safe, healthy working conditions.
- Sat. 3rd Pray for safe journeys for all travellers whether for business or for pleasure.
- Sun. 4th As America celebrates the anniversary of her independence be with those around the world still striving for this.
- Mon. 5th Loving God, forgive us this day for words carelessly spoken which have hurt others.
- Tues. 6th Bless those who are sad, and for whom loneliness is always with them.
- Wed. 7th Allow us to use the example of good sportsmanship in our dealings with other people.
- Thurs. 8th Thank you God for the beauty of summer flowers and leafy trees in parks and gardens.
- Fri. 9th Father we pray that Peter and Saboohi and the family are able to relax and enjoy this holiday time.
- Sat. 10th As couples come together in marriage during these months be with them, Lord, as they begin a new chapter in their lives.
- Sun. 11th If you are able visit a church wherever you may be and experience the joy of worship.
- Mon. 12th Heavenly Father, help us to be sure that we will never be tried above that which we are able to bear.
- Tues. 13th Heavenly Father, we give thanks for those involved in the emergency services for all they do for us whatever the circumstances.
- Wed. 14th Lord help us to appreciate our surroundings and take the opportunity to be outdoors during the summer months.

- Thurs. 15th As people enjoy being at the seaside or out at sea give thanks for the RNLI and all of their volunteers who react to all emergencies.
- Fri. 16th Lord Jesus may the church group going to Iona find refreshment and renewal of spirit as they absorb the peace of that lovely island.
- Sat. 17th Music plays an important part in many lives. We thank you for musicians and composers.
- Sun. 18th Forgive us for any friends we failed today or any people we hurt.
- Mon. 19th Bless those who are lonely because death has taken a dear one from them.
- Tues. 20th Heavenly Father thank you for family and friends who in all the changes and chances of life are always there for us.
- Wed. 21st Take time to have fun - enjoy doing something or going somewhere different with friends or family.
- Thurs. 22nd Heavenly Father we pray for those who are homeless, hurt or bereaved as a result of recent earthquakes. May there be aid sufficient to meet their needs.
- Fri. 23rd We pray for those who are grieving. Give them your support and strength. Guide friends to visit and comfort as needed.
- Sat. 24th Repeat the Lord's Prayer slowly and think about its meaning.
- Sun. 25th Today we hope for good news, a friend's visit or call, understanding.
- Mon. 26th Help us to find a way to end conflict in our homes, churches and communities.
- Tues. 27th Lord we pray for all the people who are now facing long term unemployment because of the recession.
- Wed. 28th Still there are communities where there is no access to clean water. Help us to continue working towards a solution to this.
- Thurs. 29th Lord, open my heart that I may feel your love.
- Fri. 30th We acknowledge the immense change scientists have made to our everyday lives and thank You for inspiring them.
- Sat. 31st As one season moves onto another we thank you for the interest and excitement each brings.

Time Alone

May you enjoy time alone
 Beside the wide sea
 Beneath the far stars
 In the sun's warm rays
 In the gentle rain

And may God who is in the spaces bless your walking on the good earth

Joy Mead, A Book of Blessings, Wild Goose Publications

