Prayer Link Letter – August 2010

Prayer in Uncertainty

God of those who falter
give us grace in our uncertainty give us courage to persist in choosing you over and above all else to keep on risking vulnerable love to keep on keeping the faith

Amen

- Sun. 1st Lord, bless all babies and their parents. Guide them in the months and years to come.
- Mon. 2nd Loving God keep our adventurous children safe when they are tempted to ignore the warnings of danger and playing near reservoirs and rivers and railway lines.
- Tues. 3rd As you read your Bible from a study point of view pray that God will speak to you through his Word.
- Wed. 4th Father, further the work of those who seek to save from extinction the endangered species of our planet.
- Thurs. 5th We pray for those who face dangers as they seek to bring relief where people suffer from disasters.
- Fri. 6th As part of your Bible study write down your thoughts and answers etc. Writing can bring clarity and deeper understanding of yourself and God's word for you
- Sat. 7th Lord, be with all those at our Car Boot sale today. Make opportunities for outreach to the people who come along.
- Sun. 8th Jesus Christ has neither rivals nor peers. He is unique. Help us to see him that way.
- Mon. 9th Thank you for sea, sun and sandcastles.
- Tues. 10th Thank the Lord for including you in his love and mercy. Ask for his forgiveness when we have failed to see the needs of others and pray for the courage to look out for them in practical ways.
- Wed. 11th Lord help us to be grateful for the life giving clean water we take for granted.
- Thurs. 12th Show us how to really delight in the summer nature we see all around us and to give thanks for it.
- Fri. 13th Lord, help us to reflect on the gifts you have given to us and how we can use them in your service.
- Sat. 14th Pray for grace and strength to help you face the difficult choices placed before you as you seek the will of God for yourself.

- Sun. 15th Thank you Lord for hymn writers whose words comfort, challenge and inspire us.
- Mon. 16th Father, as children and staff prepare to return to schools this week support them through the first few weeks of the new term as they get to know each other and the new situation.
- Tues. 17th Thank God that he has not left anything undone but has fulfilled all his promises in Christ.
- Wed. 18th Father teach us to count our blessings and to know contentment with what we have.
- Thurs. 19th Be with the suffering and the vulnerable people of the world. May they get the help they need timeously with ongoing support.
- Fri. 20th Creator God, thank you for the beauty and fragrance and colour of flowers.
- Sat. 21st We pray for those in our church family who long to worship with us on Sundays but are unable to do so. May they know that they are not forgotten.
- Sun. 22nd Ask God to give you opportunities this week to tell others about what the week holds for you spiritually and to speak up when they come.
- Mon. 23rd How will the fact that God wants everyone to be saved affect how you interact with people this week?
- Tues. 24th Father, forgive us if knowingly or unknowingly we have hurt others by carelessly spoken words.
- Wed. 25th What sort of things in life are worth waiting for? What makes them worth the wait? Try this question as a guide to thinking about life. Meditate for even a little time on the question.
- Thurs. 26th Be with our farmers as they begin to gather in their harvest
- Fri. 27th Have you ever thought you might find joy in sacrificial giving?
- Sat. 28th Lord we pray for world leaders that they might work together to create world peace.
- Sun. 29th Lord, we pray for the work of the STAR project and all those who use its services.
- Mon. 30th When we discuss the things of God help us to listen attentively to each other.
- Tues. 31st Father, as we look forward to the start of a new session help us to find ways to work in harmony to further your kingdom on earth.

God of Wonder

God of wonder and generosity
 Bless us this night
 Wrap us round with your glory
 Fill our lives with your justice and hope

May we rest secure surrounded by saints and angels
 May we wake to the gift of another new day.
