

Wallneuk North

Prayer Link Letter - September 2010

Harvest Blessing

Lord of the harvest
Who has given us so much
Help us to be generous like you
That the world may know your goodness and blessing.

And may the blessing of God
Maker, Son and Holy Spirit remain on us
And be made known through us
Now and always Amen

*Simon Taylor Acorns and Archangels
Wild Goose Publications*

- Wed. 1st He puts a new song in my mouth - praise the Lord, sing praises
- Thurs. 2nd Lord, share the joy of those celebrating their wedding anniversaries at this time
- Fri. 3rd Bless teachers and pupils as the new term begins
- Sat. 4th Kneel in prayer in His presence and you'll find no need to speak. God already knows what's in your mind for yourself and others
- Sun. 5th Father, bless the children who attend our Young Church and support them in all they do.
- Mon. 6th May I start each day with you Lord who art Majesty
- Tues. 7th Thank you Lord for the beauty of autumn as we see it displayed in scarlet and gold, in bronze and brown in field and woodland and garden.
- Wed. 8th Lord, give us the means to welcome young people to our Cosy Cafe each week. May they find a welcoming place on their way home from school.
- Thurs. 9th May I learn to judge others with my heart rather than my mind.
- Fri. 10th Be with the street pastors of our town as they seek to help the young people who so often feel lost and alone.
- Sat. 11th As our church receives its visitors today let them feel the warmth of your love within our building in the shape of those who welcome them.
- Sun. 12th Once again Lord, we come together to share in the sacrament of Holy Communion. Bless all who are part of our community and family.
- Mon. 13th Thank you for the many volunteers who give of their time to ACCORD Hospice, St Vincent's hospice and the work of the WRVS in the hospitals.
- Tues. 14th Teach me to be patient in everything I do.
- Wed. 15th Forgive the many errors I made yesterday and let me try again Lord, to work closer in your way.

- Thurs. 16th We pray for all young people who have spent many years in training and are unable to find a job.
- Fri. 17th Lord it is good to know that when I seek you, you are there for me.
- Sat. 18th We thank you for the gifts which are brought today to be distributed to our senior members tomorrow.
- Sun. 19th May our harvest gifts touch the hearts of those who receive them.
- Mon. 20th We pray that farmers will bring in their harvests safely before the cold winds and rain cause damage.
- Tues. 21st We pray for the homeless whether it is by choice or unfortunate circumstances.
- Wed. 22nd Lord, give us faith and courage to face and meet tomorrow.
- Thurs. 23rd Be the strength and courage of all who serve in our armed forces. Be with their families in their concern.
- Fri. 24th Dear God, help our government to sort out their financial mess and find ways to resolve it.
- Sat. 25th Lord, we pray for our minister and all the concerns people bring to him. Give him your wisdom as he tries to support and comfort them.
- Sun. 26th May our worship together each Sunday be a comfort and a challenge to us.
- Mon. 27th God is already deeply aware of the burdens we find too heavy to bear.
- Tues. 28th Many times we falter along the path of prayer. It's then we need your assurance that you are always there.
- Wed. 29th Lord, help us to change stumbling blocks into stepping stones wherever there is division and disunity among us.
- Thurs. 30th With my mouth and words I will make your loving kindness known to others

Prayer for Autumn

Lord of the seasons

There is a time for dying

And a time for new birth

A time to speak

And a time to keep quiet

Help us to discern your will for us now

Lord of autumn leaves and warm berries

help us to let go gracefully and to rejoice in the colour and fruitfulness of this moment

Wrap us in the shawl of eternity and teach us to await with wonder

the new shoots of your love

*Mary Hanrahan Acorns and Archangels
Wild Goose Publications*

