John Vetterlein was born in 1935 at Woodford, then within the county of Essex. He went on to study mathematics, physics, chemistry and medical sciences allied to pharmacology. He has an association with Orkney going back to 1970 and has lived on Rousay full-time since 1990.

A writer of fiction and non-fiction, he is an active musician and a member of the Haydn Society of Great Britain and the Rachmaninoff Society. He best describes his career as improvising his way through life from Astronomy to peat cutting.

A General Catalogue of Work

Explanatory Note

This catalogue contains a list of all written works by John Vetterlein published privately (or otherwise) for public consumption with or without ISBN. The catalogue is in two parts: the first part being devoted to fiction, the second to works of non-fiction.

Under the list of works with ISBN will be found, in the main, fiction in prose and verse.

At the time of writing, there are a number of completed shorter works in both fiction and non-fiction that are either in the course of revision or that require corrections, or both.

Most of the work devoted to non-fiction is on a wide range of topics, mostly short monographs, many without ISBN.
