Dear God Parents

How are you? Hope that you are fine with your family and friends. I am glad here with my friends and family. I am very grateful to you as because of you once again I got a chance to study well and give my exam without any obstacles. We have finished our SA 1. already but, result does not declared till now. And I have done what I can. I hope result will fulfill our dreams. Nowadays we again continue our studies as our SA2 will be held in March. I will try my best.

Nowadays Ladakh is getting colder and colder and peaceful greenery Ladakh is changing and covering with shining snow. People are start to wearing woolen clothes and students are feeling happy because they will meet their parents and celebrate their new year with them. Oh! I forget to tell you that this time our new year starting or butter lamp day is on 25th of December or on Christmas day. I feel happy and wish you a Merry Christmas day: I want to know your e-mail. Can you please send it. I will not forget your kind support and will pray for your healthy, long and successful life. Convey my heartiest wish for prosperity and JULLAY to your family and friends.

'MAY GOD BLESS YOU FOREVER'

Thank you

Your loving Ladakhi Son
