

TRANSCENDING THE STORM (Ref. 359)

A personal journey of discovery following his dramatic near death experience. Trying to escape a violent and alcoholic past, Stephen Mulhearn finds himself on the brink of death in a Glasgow hospital. As he leaves his body on the operating table he encounters a spiritual master who brings him back to life. Leaving hospital, Stephen embarks on a quest to track down the woman who saved him. On the way he experiences miraculous rituals; gathering profound insights from shamans and healers in North and South America. Returning home, he is guided to scale an ancient Druid mountain in search of his Celtic ancestors. He discovers the secret of transcending suffering and attempts to bring back hope to the culture that nearly killed him.
