

SPIRITUAL CINEMA CIRCLE - 2008 - VOLUME 9 (Ref. 087)

SYNTONY (8 minutes)

This love story takes place in a world of dance, not of words. An expression of the kind of love that transcends, Syntony is a reminder of who we are capable of being when we are led by our hearts.

PERSONAL SPECTATOR (15 minutes)

Do you feel like you're transparent and your life goes along without anyone else taking notice? You need someone to watch you. You need a PERSONAL SPECTATOR! In a deserted self service a woman is accosted by a guy offering her a brand new and quick therapy to cure her seemingly bland existence: looking at her for 5 minutes, until she starts feeling that she exists.

LUCKY BOY (12 minutes)

This short film follows the explorations of a college student searching for his birth mother. Shot in an intimate way, the suspense builds as we accompany him on his journey - with extraordinary results.

A RELATIVE THING (1 hour 42 minutes)

Five brothers and sisters are reunited by a call to come home to be with their dying grandmother. After 16 years apart, they find themselves right back where they left off, fighting the old battles with the same allies and enemies. When two important secrets are revealed, the possibility of healing emerges. A story of family, love and healing that everyone can understand.

NB This film is also listed in 'films from the heart'.