

SPIRITUAL CINEMA CIRCLE - 2007 - VOLUME 6 (Ref. 314)

MIRACULOUS COLLISION (20 minutes)

This is our third short film from filmmakers Scott Cervine and Brooke March, and is the last piece in a trilogy exploring the effects of Scott's father's death on his own life and spirit. In Miraculous Collision, with his signature humour and magician's touch, Scott visits the brink of his own mortality, completing a series of life lessons that were thrust upon him after his father's passing.

GRACE (15 minutes)

This hauntingly beautiful film is a poignant story about the way life delivers unexpected second chances even in our most desperate moments. Rae is overwhelmed by the grief of a painful anniversary. On her knees at the ocean's edge she lets go of her life piece by piece. Then, as she fights the waves to meet her fate, a five-year-old child unexpectedly interrupts her, armed with a pink suitcase full of treasures and needing help to find a way to meet her very special 'boyfriend'. As Grace breaks into Rae's world, perspective and hope return to carry Rae through her darkest hour.

AFTER SHAVE (27 minutes)

Filmed in Beirut, this simple tale follows a local barber who gets the opportunity of a lifetime when the richest, most reclusive man in town suddenly needs a haircut and shave. As he returns again and again to the wealthy man's home, he discovers why he is so alone and becomes the solitary man's only confidant, while being paid opulently for his services. This creates a battle between his inner reed and his emotional generosity.

WONDROUS OBLIVION (1 hour 46 minutes)

Set in England during the 1960s, this film follows a cricket-obsessed boy who unwittingly gets caught up in racial tensions when he befriends his new Jamaican neighbours.

NB This film is also listed in 'films from the heart'.