

Reports from County Cllrs Gordon Stewart and Ken Stow AGENDA 6 a) Enc ii)

Oakfield Terrace, reported traffic issues with HGV vehicles being taken on incorrect route	This is thought to be due to satellite navigation or simply poor directions and Cllr Gordon Stewart is looking in to it.
Early June reports of rubbish at West Wylam Shopping Centre, mainly on the grass.	NCC visited to clear up and Cllr Gordon Stewart visited proprietors were reminded about the safe storage of cooking oils and waste.
Highfield Lane Traffic Consultation	Cllr Ken Stow is looking into progress on this with Neil Snowdon
Overgrown shrubbery on Cross Street and Umfraville Dene	Cllr Gordon Stewart reported to NCC for action.
Resident suggestion that traffic calming measures increase pollution, as per recent reports in news, with reference to the Oakland's Estate.	Cllr Gordon Stewart advised resident to get a petition going if there was public feeling that these should be removed.