The Returning Officer may accept a Notice of Withdrawal sent by post. Unless a Notice of Withdrawal is received by the closing date the candidate will stand validly nominated and will be included on the ballot paper in any contested election.

6. If the number of validly nominated candidates does not exceed the number of vacant elected Community Councillor seats on the Community Council candidates will be elected unopposed, with effect from Thursday 5 November 2020. A Notice confirming those elected unopposed will be posted within the Community Council area as soon as possible thereafter.

 - Guidance Notes for Voting
 - Postage paid return envelope addressed to the Returning Officer (to hold the marked ballot paper)

Voters will return their ballot paper by posting this in the return envelope to the Returning Officer. Exceptionally, the Returning Officer may accept a ballot paper which is delivered by hand.

9. A voter must complete the ballot paper personally, by marking a (X) in the box against the names of candidates of the voter's choice up to the number of elected Community Councillor seats. For example, if there are ten elected Community Councillor seats to be filled, the voter may vote for up to (but not more than) ten candidates. If a voter spoils a ballot paper, he or she may apply to the Returning Officer for a replacement ballot paper. It will be for the voter to ensure that he or she meets the deadline for return.
10. The closing day for receipt of returned postal ballot papers (or, exceptionally, those delivered by hand) will be 4.00 pm on Thursday 5 November 2020. The votes on any ballot paper returned after that time will not be counted. The Returning Officer will count the votes validly cast as soon as practicable after the closing time. 11. The Counting of Votes will take place at Argyll and Bute Council Headquarters, Kilmory, Lochgilphead on Monday 9 November 2020. Any candidate (or a person representing a candidate) is entitled to be present at the counting of votes and the name and address of any candidate/person so wishing to attend should be given to the Returning Officer not later than two days before election day.
12. In any poll those candidates who receive the highest number of votes cast will be elected up to the number of seats to be filled.

13. Candidate Statements

In order to make themselves known to electors, candidates may submit an election statement in support of their nomination which, in the event of a contested election, will be posted on the Argyll and Bute Council website.
