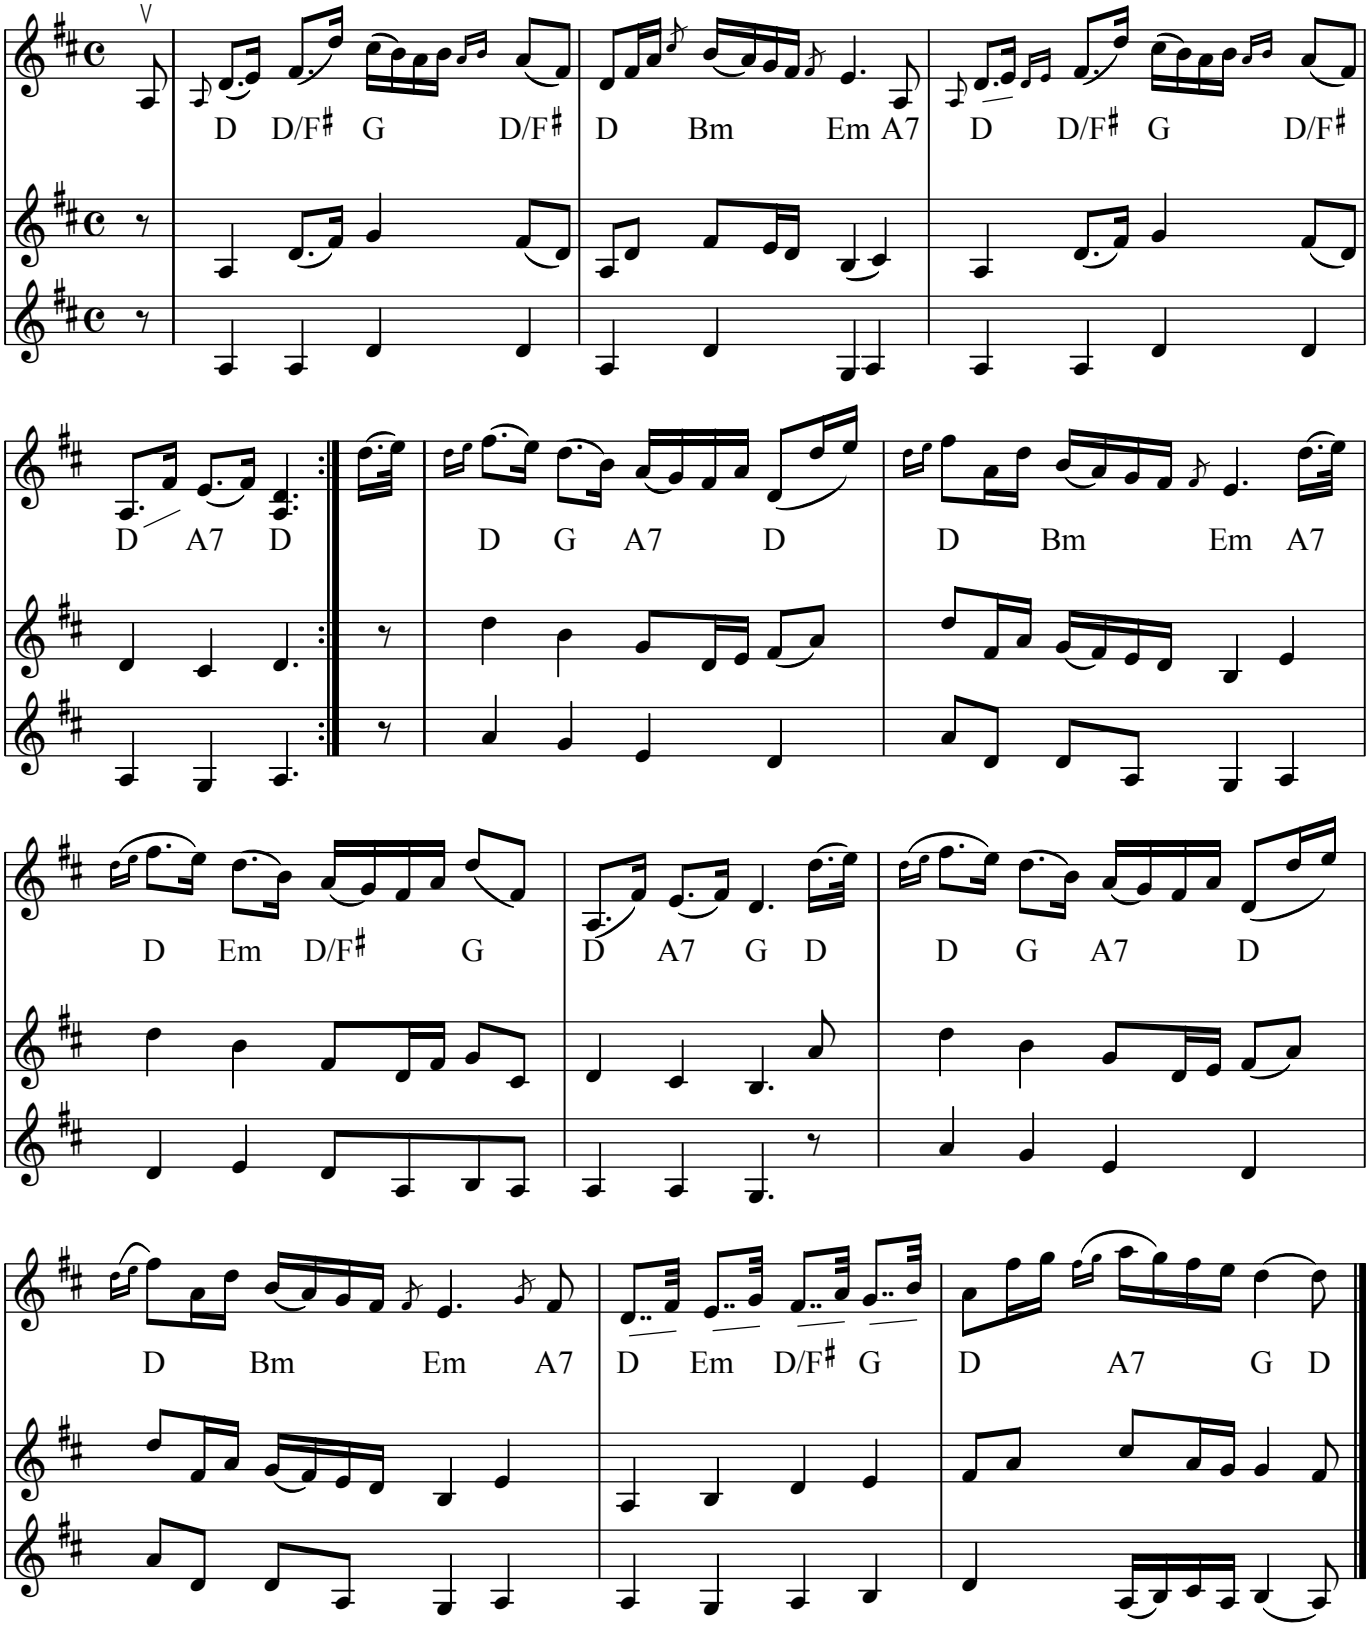
CLUNY CASTLE, INVERNESS-SHIRE (Alexander Troup)



Cluny Castle, near Kingussie, was the hereditary seat of the Chief of the Clan MacPherson. Alexander Troup (born Ballater 1835) was called "one of the greatest living authorities upon all things pertaining to Scotch music". The tune was published in Scott Skinner's Harp and Claymore Collection of 1904.

Arrangement by Eric Allan www.ericallanscottish music.co.uk