

AUCHRY

The musical score for 'Auchry' is presented in a three-staff format across four systems. The top staff contains the melody, while the middle and bottom staves provide accompaniment. The key signature is one flat (Bb) and the time signature is 9/8. The score includes various guitar chords such as F, F/C, Bb, F/A, C7, Gm, Dm, and C. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

This air is from the 1820 Collection of William Christie of Cuminestown, Aberdeenshire (reprinted by Highland Music Trust in Highland Collections 2005). The town was named after Joseph Cumine, and Auchry House was his home. Arrangement by Eric Allan www.ericallanscottishmusic.c.uk