Produce.

Arrangements were made for the transport of the produce to the Show on October 10th at Oxford. Mrs. Roland Poyce offered to take some of the things on Monday, Mrs. Gray on Tuesday - These offers were to be accepted unless Mrs. Wood, Produce Secretary could arrange anything with Inverness Institute -

Drama.

The Secretary was asked to bring up Mrs. Hume-Shelbyford to see if she could attend a rehearsal of the play for Competition - on Monday, Oct 1st at the Vicarage. It was proposed by Miss Bird and seconded by Miss Wintroppe that the players should be conveyed to Oxford & their fares be paid - This was carried. Mrs. Aldridge asked if a trunk could be obtained in which the costumes could be kept. Mrs. Roland Poyce offered a wooden box, Mrs. Chamberlain a tin trunk.

Group Meeting

● There was no suggestion for the Agenda for the Shillington Group Meeting.

Next Meeting

Mrs Roland Poyee said she would arrange about the demonstration. Mrs Seudder - and send a chair & material to the Hall

"Jerusalem"

It was decided to buy a record of "Jerusalem" so that the members could practise it for the Produce Show.
