It was suggested by Mrs. Lewis that the Institute should learn Jerusalem Drama Competition It was decided that Mrs. Roland Poyce should ask Mrs. Hartley if she would coach the players for the Drama Competition

Suggested by Miss Ousing that 2/6 should be given the members to trade with in 1929. This was left

Ow -

Mr. Roland Toye suggested that the Ow - which had previously been voted ^{via} for the Theatre - should be an afternoon at the Pantomime. This was to be put to the members. Mrs. Lewis thought perhaps a party might care to see the Colleges at Oxford hire a bus.

Miss Lind said that the Institute must not forget its good deed. It might perhaps take the form of planting flowers - tulips or roses - to beautify the Village - either in the Church yard or on the green surrounding the Memorial.
