

A Committee meeting was held at Benson Vicarage
on Friday, Dec. 20th at 5.30 P.M.

Members present, M^{rs} Wood, M^{rs} Munday
M^{rs} R. Pyce, M^{rs} Jessop, M^{rs} Walker, M^{rs} Douglas
M^{rs} Atkinson, M^{rs} Young.

The President took the chair.

Apologies were sent by M^{rs} Aldridge, & Miss Vaisey.
The Minutes were read and signed.

Vice-Presidents. It was proposed by M^{rs} Wood, and seconded by M^{rs} Roland Pyce that M^{rs} Walker be Vice President, and Proposed by M^{rs} Jessop, seconded by M^{rs} J. Young that M^{rs} Atkinson be Vice President and these were unanimously elected.

Secretary Two names were submitted for Secretary
M^{rs} H. Aldridge and Miss Vaisey.
A vote was taken, and Miss Vaisey was elected.
M^{rs} Jessop signified her willingness to be assistant secretary.

Treasurer. Mr Munday was re-elected Hon Treasurer after being proposed by Mr Atkinson; & seconded by Mr Wood.

A letter was read from the Sec. Shillingford W.I asking if the Dramatic Society would do "The Lesson" at their meeting on April 30th. The Sec. was instructed to write and accept.

Entertainment Committee. The Entertainment Committee was elected, as follows;
Mr H. Aldridge (Chairman)
Mr H. Young, Mr Douglas, Mr W. Hutchings,
Mr Joseph, Mr W. Aldridge, Mr Chamberlain
This Committee to be responsible for Games, Competitions, - plays, etc.

Auditor. The secretary was asked to write to Mr. Yates asking if he will kindly audit the accounts for 1930.

Jan. Meeting. Arrangements were made for the next meeting to be held on Wednesday January 8th. A Round Table Conference, as a guide to the programme building was agreed to.

It was suggested by Mr Atkinson that some of the rules of the W. I. should be read out and there will also be games.
Mrs Jessup to be tea-hostess.

Proposed Social
It was proposed that a Social be held in January. The 22nd was the date mentioned but no decision could be made until it had been put to the Monthly meeting.

Home & Country
The Secretary to write for 15 copies of Home & Country, instead of 12 as hitherto.

Presentation
On behalf of the Institute, Mr Lewis presented Mrs Chamberlain with a bowl of Tulips, as a mark of appreciation of her work as Secretary for four years.

Kathleen D Lewis

Feb: 14th / 30