

September 1947

New Member The Monthly Meeting was held as usual in the Parish Hall at 2.30 pm on the 17th September, Miss Chamberlain presiding. After the singing of Jerusalem the President welcomed Mr. Edmondroyd as a new Member & said how pleased we all were to have Miss Selous, an old Member, with us once more and also Mr. Drew, who had come a long distance.

Setts-profits The Minutes of the last Meeting were read and signed, mention being made of the very successful class recently held for Smocking and also of two outings which had been enjoyed since the last Meeting. The Meeting agreed that the Committee should deal with the allocation of the profits - viz £79-15/- - from the Bank Holiday ^{site} bearing in mind a donation to the St. Osmonds Street Hospital, War Graves Commission, Winding of the Church Clock, ^{the} need for new china and library books, seats in the village.

D.F.W. Annual Meeting The Month Letters for August & September were read & Mr. Stubbs agreed to go as Delegate to the D.F.W. Annual Meeting on the 4th October.

Sewing Meetings A small Committee consisting of Mr. W. Aldridge, Mr. C. Douglas & Miss Atkinson was formed to arrange for a series of sewing meetings during the winter. The first Meeting was arranged for Monday the 6th October 2.30-4.30 in the Free Church Hall. Mr. C. Douglas proposed and Mr Pasman seconded that each person attending such Meetings should pay 6^d each time and if further financial help should be required the Institute would make it good. This was unanimously agreed to. Mr W. Aldridge stated that Mr Badger was willing to give a series of Needlework classes in this connection if required.

A letter of thanks ^{for the £10 donation} from ^{Missions to Seamen} Missions to Seamen & also one from the Br. Legion Women's Section, thanking the W.I. for offering to them the use of part of the china cupboard. Mr H. Aldridge, the liaison officer, explained that this might not now be required.

The Rushwork Classes were fixed for Oct: 13th, 20th, 27th + 31st. 2.30 - 4.30 p.m. Names were taken of those Members wishing to attend the Warborough Group Meeting & there was a show of hands for those wishing to enter for the Bulb competition next year.

Following the business, the Meeting was instructed and entertained by Mr Womersley in the playing of the percussion band, which was greeted with a hearty vote of thanks ^{to her} was proposed by Mr H. Aldridge & endorsed by all present.

Mr Womersley continued her good work by reading out & judging the five entries for the humorous poem competition, awarding the first place to Mr Pasman & Mr Shotton.
