Xmas Party.

Programme

The president asked if the committee would be willing to have the programme printed although the talks for May & June had not been fixed. It was decided to keep negotiation with the BBC for a speaker, as it was thought possible to assemble the necessary large audience by involving neighbouring W.I.s. The printing of the programme to be undertaken by the same firm as 1951.

Treasurer's report.

The Treasurer gave her report, & said that the Monday handicrafts meeting had given her £6. The Monthly Letter was read.

Old Peoples Party.

Arrangements were made for the O.P.P. & Mrs Chamberlain consented to organize it, with the help of Mrs Smith.
