Members of the public may attend throughout the meeting, unless the Chair determines that any particular subject be discussed in closed session. Members of the public may not speak, other than at the invitation of the Chair during the public session, and only then for a maximum of three minutes.

Requests for financial assistance will require formalising in writing and must be accompanied by bank account details, certified club/organisational accounts for the previous year, and details of the organisation's constitution and officers.

Items of other business may only be noted for discussion at the next meeting.

Other than in exceptional circumstances determined by the Chair, the agenda's allocated times will be strictly adhered to and the meetings close at 9:00PM.
