3. An e-mail was received from Mr H Hayfield – Queen's Baton Relay – it was agreed for Mr H Hayfield to put a request in for the village – community council to assist if needed.
4. Mr K Bird and Mr D Wright – raised concerns of the speed of traffic through the village. A discussion was held on what the community council has tried to do in the past, it was suggested to Mr K Bird that if he wanted to form an action group with residents of the village to try and raise their concerns with Ceredigion County Council then they would have the community council's support. Issues were also raised on residential parking within the village.

Next Meeting – 6th of October 2021 at 7.30pm.
