3 John 1:13-15

Coming back,,

It would be lovely when we can meet to have a thanksgiving service followed by a celebration tea. This however is unlikely to be possible for some time as we will probably need to follow a series of rules for some time. We recognise that these are there for our good, to keep ourselves and others safe. It will seem strange not being able to shake someone's hand or have a cup of tea and a biscuit after a meeting.

Possibly when we are able to meet there might be restrictions on the number who can meet together. We will meet as small, well spaced-out groups possibly with singing discouraged.

We recognise too that some who have to continue shielding may not be able to meet with their brothers and sisters for some time. We need to keep in close contact with such and to always have them in our thoughts, prayers and hearts knowing that each believer is a member of the one body of which Christ is the Head.

One thing is certain, the Lord never changes, His word is always the same and we can be assured of the presence of the risen Christ when two or three are met together in His name. Let us use the opportunities the Lord gives to build up one another in the faith and to share with others the message of new life in Christ.

¹³ May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope. Rom. 15

REVIVAL

At this time when many are anxious not just about the Corona Virus but also about the economy, levels of unemployment, superpower rivalry, culture clashes and climate change let us take every opportunity to present the saving message of Christ and let us pray for...

LORD, I have heard of your fame;
I stand in awe of your deeds, LORD.
Repeat them in our day,
in our time make them known;
in wrath remember mercy.
