

Hug in a Mug

Our brother Ken had read about Hug in a Mug and as he shared the concept others became enthusiastic for this idea. Single sachets of tea, coffee and drinking chocolate together with biscuits and wrapped marshmallows, along with a tract and invite to meetings are put into a mug which is wrapped and tied with a ribbon. These gifts are then given to express the love of the fellowship to those who receive the gifts.

Here are some photos of the Hug Team in action preparing the Mugs.

NEWS FROM MOUNT PLEASANT GOSPEL HALL

November 2021

True Value by Nigel Wren

Recently the well-known street artist, Banksy made a well-publicised visit to our area and left behind a number of sought after and valuable pictures sprayed onto walls which left me wondering how to assess value.

Peter wrote of supreme value "...you were not redeemed with perishable things like silver and gold...but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot." 1 Peter 1:18=19

The blood of Christ, the sinless One, is spoken of as precious because it came from His pierced side and cleanses away the sins of all who believe in Him.
