

Gluren 2015

a Reay House, George Street 13.30 Ceoloran is a local acoustic trio 14.15 that plays and sings folk music 15.00 from Scotland, Ireland, Canada and the USA. They perform harmony singing and play fiddle, mandolin, banjo, whistle, guitar
and bodhran.
The name 'Ceoloran'' derives from the Gaelic for Ceol = music and Oran = song."

b 7 Duke Street 14.45
True Heart. 'We met at the 15.30
open mic in Findhorn where 16.15 Miri was playing beautiful Brazilian bossa nova songs, just as I (Joost) walked in. I didn't think twice, I pulled out my guitar and sat down on stage and played along. So our first conversation was music! Long story short: we got married in Japan last December!

c 1 Links Cottage 14.15
Robin Bell is a local 15.00 singer/songwriter who regularly 15.45 features at Glachbeg Folk Club and this year performed on the Free Range Folk stage at Belladrum. Robin captures his audience's interest and imagination by performing his own material, inspired by characters and events from his local area of Easter Ross.

d Old Police House, Bank Street 14.00 (husky voice:) IN A WORLD - 15.00
where anecdotes have no 16.00 antidotes, and sketches should be carefully rubbed out before a policeman sees them... we bring you:
"Gluren 3, Seller(s) & Price Are At It Again." Comic nonsense and tall tales in unflattering costumes, for the easily pleased.

e Sydney House, High Street 14.30 Enjoy an entertaining sample of 15.15 poems and short stories written 16.00 and read by members of Black Isle Writers. BIW welcomes and supports published and unpublished local writers. Collect your free copy of Quicksilver, our 25th anniversary anthology.
Donations welcome in aid of Syrian Refugees.

f The Annexe on the Corner, 14.00
Church St 14.45
15.30
Fyrish are the Cromartybased folk musicians Marjorie Paterson and David Cowan. They perform their own arrangements of traditional and contemporary songs with cello and guitar accompaniment. Marjorie and David are regulars at the music sessions in Cromarty and Fortrose. See their website at www.fyrish.org.

g 30 Church Street 14.15
Sunshine Drunk. Folk-indie 15.00 three piece, covering anything 15.45
from Bruce Springsteen to Taylor Swift. Spanning the breadth of Norwich, Doncaster and Huddersfield, it's a wonder they ever get to rehearse (or do they...?)

h Wellington House, 15.00
Church Street 15.45
Piggery Spur. Greg Fullarton and Mike Schroeder make a rare live appearance playing an acoustic set of original songs from their album
"Welcome to Piggery Spur" as well as a selection of new material.
Inspired by the people and places of the Black Isle. Real songs about real life; acoustic guitar, mandolin, fiddle, and gravel drenched vocals.

h Wellington House, 16.30
Church Street
Cromarty Karaoke. Finish the afternoon off in style with Nige's unique take on the traditional Japanese home-spun entertainment. Have fun with friends.

i 1 Nicol Terrace 15.00 Deadwood. Freeform exploration 15.45 of percussion, rhythm and 16.30 sound, using a variety of instruments from around the world. (Brought to you by Gluren favourite Graham Normand and friends).

j The Old Orchard, Miller Road 13.30 wall2wall fiddle are a group of 14.15 musicians and friends from the 15.00 Black Isle and Inverness who play a wide variety of traditional music from Scotland, Ireland and Scandinavia. Well known in the local area, we are also regular guests at an annual music festival in Hirtshals in Denmark.
