Ceoloran is a local 4-piece acoustic band that plays and sings folk music from Scotland and beyond. We perform harmony singing and play a range of instruments including fiddle, mandolin, banjo, whistle, guitar and bodhran. This year we are joined by Ron on the cello.

15.00
Robin Bell is a local singer/songwriter who regularly features at Glachbeg Folk Club and on the Free Range Folk stage at Belladrum. He captures his audience's interest and imagination by performing his own material, inspired by characters and events from the local area of Easter Ross.

g 35 Bank Street 14.00 True Heart. Making a welcome 14.45 return to Gluren is Joost 15.15 (Netherlands) and Miri (Japan) offering their unique blend of guitar and song from a whole range of international influences.

h The Lighthouse 14.45 George Street 15.45
'A Sense of Place' with Hilary de Vries. I'm a composer and song writer, and I'll be presenting and talking about a selection of my music and the different landscapes that have inspired it, including Orkney, Galloway, and, of course, the Black Isle. I'll be playing clarsach, small pipes and recorder, and also sing a song or two.

i Barkly House, Duke Street 13.00
Lauren MacLeod is a 15-year-old 13.45 Cromarty resident just starting 14.30 out in the world of solo performance. Although a Higher Drama student with a string of musical theatre and opera shows under her belt, singing is her biggest love - everything from covers of lyrical pop, and classics to ballads and some trad/Gaelic.

j 1 Links Cottage 14.30
Jemima Morris 15.15 I am a sixteen year old with a 16.00 passion for music! Two years ago, I began teaching myself the guitar and I now busk regularly, playing a range of different pop songs. I also play the keyboard and sing in my church band. I write some of my own songs and love connecting with different people.
