

Gluren 2017

a 35 Bank Street 13.10
Black Isle Writers 13.50
14.30
Join us for an entertaining selection of short stories and poems written and read by some of our members. A different selection each time!

b Sandstones (enter from 13.30 Allan Square) 14.10
14.50
Elis Macfadyen is a local singer/songwriter who performs his own songs in the Scottish Folk, Country, Alternative idiom, as well as traditional and contemporary popular covers. Elis sings and plays guitar/bass in local bands and regularly plays at Glachbeg, Lovat Arms, other open mic venues and Ardesier International Folk Club.

c The Cottage behind 14.40
the snooker club, Bank Street 15.20 16.00
Sandy Thompson is a founder member of the popular folk group Ceoloran, and a long serving member of Dingwall Gaelic Choir. He has been singing Scots and Gaelic songs for many years and has competed successfully in local national Mods and music festivals. More recently his repertoire has expanded to include folk songs, (traditional and modern), bothy ballads, sea shanties etc., and will serve up a variety for your entertainment. With a guitar accompaniment, lots of banter and some audience participation, he hopes to make your afternoon memorable and is very much looking forward to meeting you!

d Rurki, High Street 13.00 Wall2Wall Fiddle are a group 13.40
of musicians and friends from 14.20
the Black Isle and Inverness who play traditional Scottish and Irish music. Making a welcome return to Gluren.

e 29 Bayview Crescent 14.20
Piggery Spur. Formed in 2006, 15.00
Mike and Greg make their annual 15.40 appearance playing an acoustic set of original Black Isle inspired songs - a mix of new material and 'old favourites'. Guitar, bouzouki, mandolin, fiddle with more than a hint of gravel.

f Mizpah, High Street 14.30
Jemimah Morris is a 15.10
seventeen-year old musician, 15.50 singer and songwriter from Inverness. Three years ago she began teaching herself to play guitar and now she busks regularly on Inverness High Street. She enjoys performing a range of popular songs and also writes some of her own music.

g St Regulus, Church Street 13.20
Fyrish are the Cromarty duo 14.00
Marjorie Paterson and 14.40
David Cowan. Songs, traditional and modern. Toe-tapping melodies and thoughtful lyrics with cello and guitar. Performing in the tranquil setting and splendid acoustics of the church. www.fyrish.org

h Wellington House 14.50
Church Street 15.30
Clinging To The Wreckage 16.10
'A Trip Around the World'
A group of guitarists and ukulele players who stumbled together through the common denominator of music tutor Wendy Mullery. The group will be performing pieces from around the world and reflecting styles of music or popular pieces of origin. Many are well known and there's plenty of opportunities to sing along.

i The Old Brewery 13.00
Sellers & Price 14.00
'Gluren 2017: Unexpected items in the Gaggling Area'
We can reveal that Mr & Mrs Seller and Mr Price remain at large, and that consequently, they will be inflicting more of their brand-new sketches on a defenceless audience. Bring your own pitchforks and outrage.

Please note: 2 performances only, 40 minutes duration.

All other slots are 20 minutes duration.