

Health day

This school had another annual health day. This raises money for sport relief and then they help people that don't have much food and helps set up medical tents to cure diseases. The activity's that were happening today were volleyball/Rock band/Chi tea making and many others. By John Clark

