

Seniors Group – Festive Lunch 2018

You may, dear reader, think this is a Murray ‘take-over’ when you read towards the end of this short report, but I can assure you it is not – it is just how things have worked out this time. The call to Christmas Lunch, to be held at our usual venue i.e. Crookston Hotel, Glasgow on Thursday December 6th at 12.30 p.m., was received early November. Twenty two members attended this year and all were warmly greeted on arrival by our Group Organiser, Daphne Davidson. Before lunch Daphne welcomed Glasgow Branch Chairperson, Mrs Margaret Sanders and her husband Christopher, who incidentally is Branch Archivist. Margaret brought greetings from Glasgow Branch Committee and gave a short resume of the recent 95th Anniversary celebrations, after which we settled down for our chosen meal – the menu having been distributed with our call-to-lunch letter.

Conversations around the table ranged from recalling previous lunches, remembering those who were unable to join us, and those who were no longer with us - all very light-hearted. Patrick Murray was there with his trusty camera and took some photographs, including some very handsome Christmas Jumpers, see opposite. After lunch, In lieu of formal entertainment, we played a few party games which caused a huge amount of laughter and good humour. Before the close of our festive lunch, a vote of thanks was given to Daphne and Katherine Morrison for organising the lunches over the year, and Graham Murray presented Daphne with a seasonal bouquet of flowers.
