

Seniors' Meeting 18 December 2013 – Christmas Lunch

The Seniors' Group met at our usual venue, The Crookston Hotel, where 30 members gathered to enjoy our annual Christmas Lunch. The menu was such that we had three choices for each of the two courses, hence something to suit all tastes. It was nice to see some of the past and present active members of the Glasgow Branch at the lunch, however, there was one person who was a bit more difficult to recognise because he had acquired a moustache and goatee beard, which I have to say really suited him! (Guess who?)

Our events organiser had arranged for a singing group called “The Westertones” to entertain us after the meal and comprised 8 men with their lady accompanist on keyboard. As it was near Christmas the programme took on a flavour of the festive season, and since we were provided with song sheets we were able to join in the singing of the more popular carols. Mr. Eric Hudson acted as the compere, and we had two soloists, Mr. Gibb who sang “Have yourself a merry little Christmas” and Mr. Hudson who sang a funny song about the love between two geese. His rendition of this song brought much laughter from the members. The Westertones performed their programme for over an hour and we were sorry when it came to an end. I surely hope we shall be inviting The Westertones back again to entertain us.

The afternoon session was brought to a close by our organiser, Daphne, thanking The Westertones for coming and especially Catherine Scott on keyboard for bringing her “boy band backing group”! Also thanked were the staff of the hotel for their service, and the ladies for serving the meal in Jig time.
