Year for Priests

Prayer of St Thérèse of Lisieux

O Jesus,

I pray for your faithful and fervent priests; for your unfaithful and tepid priests; for your priests labouring at home or abroad in distant mission fields; for your tempted priests; for your lonely and desolate priests; for your young priests; for your dying priests; for the souls of your priests in Purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me; the priest who baptised me; the priests who absolved me from my sins; the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; the priests who taught and instructed me; all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way.

O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart, and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity. Amen

Thérèse: Patroness of the Missions

Today is World Mission Sunday and it is a good opportunity to reflect on St Thérèse's Visit here last weekend. Thérèse is Patroness of the Missions and in some little way we experienced why she is such an appropriate choice for this role. We saw a little glimpse of the hunger for truth, for prayer, for the Gospel, for the spiritual life, that is deep within every human being. We saw also the conviction that Thérèse in some way discovered and holds the answer to the deepest hunger of humanity.

Thérèse writes: "Oh! In spite of my littleness, I would like to shed light on souls like the Prophets, the Doctors. I have the vocation to be an Apostle. I would like to travel across the world, preach Your name, and plant Your glorious Cross on the soil of unbelievers. But, my Beloved, a single mission wouldn't be enough for me. I would at the same time like to preach the Gospel in the five parts of the world and as far as the remotest islands. I would like to be a missionary, not only for a few years, but I would like to have been one since the creation of the world and be one until the end of the ages".

Thérèse is not just expressing her own convictions and desires but she is expressing the power of the Gospel and the vocation of the Church. The Gospel is so powerful that when a human being really grasps it, that person must spread the word. A person who has entered deeply into the mystery of the Gospel is compelled by an irresistible desire to share their Christian convictions. For Thérèse it was impossible to be Christian and not be missionary. Thérèse's missionary journey was not to the ends of the earth, not even to the next village, but rather to the remotest regions of the human heart. That is the most difficult mission of all; to allow the Love of Jesus to penetrate our deepest selves, to transform us from within and to root out every desire, attitude, conviction or attachment that is contrary to the values and ideals of the Gospel. Whenever a person has the courage and generosity to do this, then the whole world comes seeking what that person has – that is what we saw last Sunday. Thérèse can bring the Gospel to the world because she has allowed the Gospel into her inner world.

Thank You

It is impossible to even begin to thank all who need thanking for last weekend – on the occasion of the Visit of the Relics of St Thérèse It was a joint effort by all who come to this Church. So many people have spoken about the welcome, kindness and generosity they received when they came into this Church. What was most impressive was the prayerfulness of the occasion. Even in the small hours of the morning there was a large number praying silently in the Church. Let me just say how proud I am of everyone who comes here and of your generosity, self-giving, deep faith and openness. We pray that you will all be truly blessed by the occasion.

We now need to think about how we can follow up on this and build for the future. Ideas and suggestions are very welcome. Fr Matt
