Religious Life

When we look at the history of the Church we see that nuns, monks, friars, brothers, sisters, hermits and many other forms of consecrated life have always formed part of it. In addition each new era of history gives birth to new forms and expressions. These are signs of the Holy Spirit's continued presence and work in the Church.

Every vocation is a call by God to live one's baptism in a particular way. A vocation is not the personal possession of the person called, rather every vocation is a gift of God to the Church to build up and enrich the life of the Church. A vocation is the fruits of a living and praying Church and a sign of God's care and concern for that Church. A vocation is also an answer to need – when we study the history of the Church, we see new religious families emerging where and when they are needed and to fulfil the needs of that particular Church in that particular historic situation.

At our 6.00pm Mass on Wednesday next 24 March, Sr. Camilla Oderling will make her final profession as a member of the Community of Our Lady of Walsingham. Since I put this in the Newsletter a few weeks ago, I have been asked the following question a number of times: “I have never been to anything like this, can I come along?” The answer to that question is very definitely YES! This will be a unique experience and an opportunity not to be missed.

There are many good reasons to come and not just curiosity [though curiosity is not a bad reason!]. As Christians, we have a duty to encourage and support vocations – our presence, encouragement and prayers is one way of doing so. The Holy Spirit is constantly at work among us but his work only bears fruit with our co-operation, generosity and sacrifice.

As a Church we must be constantly encouraging, nurturing and supporting what is new; in this we are co-operating with the Holy Spirit and building a Church for those who will come after us. For many of us, our experience of Church can be limited – Wednesday's ceremony gives us all an opportunity to experience an unfamiliar but very alive dimension of the Church.

On Wednesday next, Sr. Camilla will profess the three traditional vows of poverty, chastity and obedience [known as Evangelical Counsels] for the rest of her life. These vows or counsels set individuals and communities free to live the life of Christ, to be visible witnesses to his presence in the world and to be available to serve.

“From the God-given seed of the Counsels a wonderful and wide-spreading tree has grown up in the field of the Lord, branching out into various forms of religious life lived in solitude and in community. Different religious families have come into existence in which spiritual resources are multiplied for the progress in holiness of their members and for the good of the entire Body of Christ... this should be seen as a form of life to which some Christians are called by God so that they may enjoy a special gift of grace in the life of the Church and may contribute each in his/her own way, to the saving mission of the Church”. [documents of Vatican II]

Fr Matt Blake, Prior

P.S. Please note that because of Sr. Camilla's Profession taking place on Wednesday next, we will not have the usual Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 6.30-8.00pm that evening.

40 Hours Adoration – 18-20 April

During this Year for Priests, the Diocese is organising a series of 40 Hours Eucharistic Adoration. Ours will begin with the Sunday evening Mass on 18 April [celebrated by Bishop Alan Hopes] and end with the 12.15pm Mass on Tuesday 20 April. More details nearer the time.

RCIA – Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

We ask you please to continue to remember in your prayers our group of young people from this Church who are preparing to receive the Sacraments this Easter. They are: James, Sonali, Patrick, Margaret, Ellina and Christine.

British Summer time begins on Sunday next 28 March. Please remember to put your clocks forward by one hour at Midnight on Saturday !!

Gift Aid

Will those who donate to the Church by Gift Aid, please collect their envelopes from Reception for the coming year. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all who donate in this way. Being able to claim the tax back – 28p for every £1 that you give - is a great financial help to our Church. Also I would like to invite others to consider donating in this way. All you have to do is complete a simple form, and we will give you a box of numbered envelopes for your weekly donation. Or if you prefer, you can donate by Bankers Order. Paying by either of these two methods will not cost you anything extra. The only requirement is that you are a British Tax Payer. Thank you. Fr Matt
