What is Easter ?

We begin our celebration of the Easter Vigil with the Church in darkness. The Easter fire is lit and from it the Easter candle. We are reminded of the first words of the bible: “Let there be light”. Life on earth begins when God creates light. A new life is beginning with the resurrection, or we can put it differently and say that the resurrection is the real beginning of life on earth – life as God meant it to be known, lived and understood. For us Christians the resurrection is the starting point of our discovery of who we truly are and of how God wishes us to understand ourselves, our lives and our world.

At the Easter Vigil we are brought on a journey through scripture. Over these centuries God gradually reveals himself to his people and his people gradually discover who they are and their part in God’s plan. All of this is leading up to the resurrection when God reveals through Jesus Christ the full reality of his plan for humanity.

The Easter candle is blessed with these beautiful words: Christ yesterday and today the beginning and the end, Alpha, and Omega; all time belongs to him, and all the ages; to him be glory and power, through every age for ever. Amen. These words once more remind us that we are at the real beginning of human history. St John opens his Gospel by telling us this about Jesus: “Through him all things came to be, not one thing had its being but through him. All that came to be had life in him and that life was the light of men, a light that shines in the dark, a light that darkness could not overpower”.

Easter, then, is the celebration of who we are as human beings, children of God, people with a capacity for thought, love, relationship, decision-making, etc. and the most astounding capacity of all – the capacity for relationship with God. In addition, Easter is the celebration of our destiny: life, light, wisdom, eternal life, union with God etc.

We struggle to answer the question: What is Easter? That struggle goes very deep within us because, in reality, we are struggling to answer the most profound mysteries of human existence. Though we give superficial answers when we are asked casually, people of faith are deeply aware that Easter takes us to a mystery we can never satisfactorily put into words.

As Christians, as people of faith in Jesus Christ, the one thing we are certain about today is that what we are celebrating is real and has life-changing consequences for all of us. The Church has always understood Easter to be the time for Baptism and the time to renew Baptism. We are at the heart, the epicentre of all we believe, this is the time for life-changing decisions, to cast aside all that compromises or distorts our faith or Christian living and to make new again our faith in all that the resurrection makes possible.

May this Easter be a time of grace and blessings for all who come to this Church. Our prayers and best wishes are with all our parishioners who are celebrating Easter in other parts of the world.

Easter Baptisms

We offer our sincere congratulations to Riandra, Marian, Samorn, Sherez, Jeffrey, Gergely, Elena and Thomas who received the Sacrament of Baptism at our Easter Vigil last night. Congratulations also to their families, sponsors and all who helped them in any way on their journey of faith.

*Rejoice, heavenly powers,
Sing, choirs of angels!
Exult, all creation around God's throne!
Jesus Christ, our King, is risen!
Sound the trumpet of salvation!*

*Rejoice, O earth, in shining splendour,
Radiant in the brightness of your King!
Christ has conquered! Glory fills you!
Darkness vanishes for ever!*

John McCarthy RIP

With sadness we announce the death on 9 April of John McCarthy OBE, a past Director of our Carmelite Choir, and the following is a contribution submitted by Bruce Ogston our present Choir Master and Organist:-

“John, who was awarded the OBE for his services to music, directed the Carmelite Choir for over 40 years, engaging professional singers who were as loyal to him as he was to us. Every Sunday was a musical and social occasion, often leading to opera and film recordings, radio, and many trips abroad. He built up a vast library of music which I continue to use and which will ensure that he will always be remembered. May he Rest in Peace”
