MINUTES OF AGM 2018

Adoption of the minutes was proposed by HB, seconded by JB.

CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT

Following on from the Community Council reforming after a period of abeyance in November, there is not much to report from the AGM held when re-establishing.

We are delighted to have welcomed a co-opted member to join us – and hopefully we may be able to encourage another in the near future.

There are a few funding opportunities which we have become aware of and hopefully there may be something that we can try to apply for. Really pleased to say the John is looking into these and guiding us.

There are one or two ongoing issues which would be good to see resolved such as the real-time bus displays and a couple of others, hopefully we will get to a conclusion with them.

Grateful thanks to the other Community Councillors and to the Local Highland Council members for their support and help, and to the members of the public who come along to meetings.

TREASURER'S REPORT

The accounts were read through, the Councilors had no questions.
