A NEW PACK IS FORMING IN THE BAY AREA
COME JOIN US!

DATE: Saturday, January 17, 2015

TIME: 2:00 – 5:00 pm

WHERE: In Portola Valley; directions will be sent upon your RSVP

WHAT: An afternoon of exciting news, nice nibbles, interesting people

WHO: You and, hopefully, your friends

COST: Literally a free for all, but please do bring your check book or credit card (cash, even!)

COME MEET DR. GREG RASMUSSEN AND MR. MK MOYO (aka, hero) tell us about their new venture. Dr. Rasmussen will tell us about his continuing research on the amazing Painted Dogs of Africa. Also hear about his efforts to provide real field study experience for Zimbabwean university graduate students. This educational opportunity is so vital for Zimbabwe – a country that has seen so many of its educated, white collar citizens emigrate to other countries. And come learn why MK is a hero – you know you're curious!

Please mark your calendar to come join us in our first annual event on behalf of the Painted Dog Research Trust, and do feel free to invite friends/strangers/whomever you think would be interested in learning about and supporting an exciting new scientific and community service venture in Zimbabwe.
