Safeguarding policy

Overview - Commitment to safeguarding

King's Lynn Festival Chorus believes that a child, young person or vulnerable adult should never experience abuse of any kind. We recognise that we have a responsibility to promote the welfare of all children, young people and vulnerable adults. We are committed to safeguarding the well-being of all children, young people and vulnerable adults we come into contact with and to protecting them from harm.

About this policy

- This policy applies to: all members, staff (whether employees or freelancers), volunteers and anyone working on behalf of Kings Lynn Festival Chorus or taking part in Kings Lynn Festival Chorus activities.
- The purpose of this policy is to provide members, staff and volunteers with the overarching principles that guide our approach to the protection of vulnerable people
- This policy recognises vulnerable people as:
  - Children up to the age of 16 or young people aged 16-18.
  - Adults aged over 18 defined as vulnerable by the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006; this might include adults with a learning or physical disability, a physical or mental illness, chronic or otherwise, including an addiction to alcohol or drugs, or reduced physical or mental capacity.
- This policy aims to:
  - Protect children, young people and vulnerable adults who are; members of, receive services from, or volunteer for, Kings Lynn Festival Chorus.
  - Ensure members, staff and volunteers working with children, young people and vulnerable adults are carefully recruited and understand and accept responsibility for the safeguarding of those vulnerable individuals they are interacting with.

- Ensure that safeguarding of children, young people and vulnerable adults is a primary consideration when Kings Lynn Festival Chorus undertakes any activity, event or project.

How Kings Lynn Festival Chorus might work with vulnerable people

We run regular rehearsals and lessons for members and put on concerts for the general public.

Membership is open to anyone of any age, including those under 18.

As such our involvement with vulnerable people might include, but is not limited to:

- Members of the group who attend rehearsals, lessons and concerts
- Relatives and friends of members who attend rehearsals and concerts in a volunteering capacity
- Audience members at public concerts

Named safeguarding person: has responsibility for safeguarding issues. All queries and concerns relating to safeguarding should be referred to Gina Hart in the first instance. Any projects, events or other activities that will involve vulnerable people must be planned with the involvement of Gina Hart and in line with established procedures and ground rules (see below).

Procedures and ground rules: A further document – ‘Ground rules, ways of working and procedures’ is available and forms part of this policy.

Policy review: This policy will be reviewed and amended (if necessary) on an annual basis by the King’s Lynn Festival Chorus Committee. It will also be reviewed in response to changes in relevant legislation, good practice, or in response to an identified failing in its effectiveness.

Ground rules, ways of working and procedures

This document forms part of the King’s Lynn Festival Chorus safeguarding policy.

The document applies to: all members, staff (whether employees or freelancers), volunteers and anyone working on behalf of King’s Lynn Festival Chorus or taking part in King’s Lynn Festival Chorus activities.

This document recognises vulnerable people as:

- Children up to the age of 16 or young people aged 16-18.

- Adults aged over 18 defined as vulnerable by the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006; this might include adults with a learning or physical disability, a physical or mental illness, chronic or otherwise, including an addiction to alcohol or drugs, or reduced physical or mental capacity.

This document includes:

- Recruitment practices around safeguarding
- Ground rules and ways for working regarding safeguarding of vulnerable people
- Procedures for raising safeguarding concerns and incidents of abuse
- Procedures for dealing with concerns and incident of abuse

Recruitment practices around safeguarding

If an existing or potential new member, staff member or volunteer will be working with vulnerable people as part of King's Lynn Festival Chorus activities the appropriate level of DBS will be requested before that work is undertaken.

The level of DBS check required will be decided by the committee and in line with DBS rules regarding regulated activity. The results of any check to inform a decision will be used confidentially and in line with the King's Lynn Festival Chorus equal opportunities policy.

Ground rules and ways for working regarding safeguarding of vulnerable people

When King's Lynn Festival Chorus organises an activity or event where they will be responsible for vulnerable people they will ensure:

- Planning is carried out in line with this policy and procedures.
- The event is attended by an appropriate number of DBS checked adults – this will be a minimum of one but more when practically possible.
- Where practically possible the total number of adults in attendance (not necessarily DBS checked) compared with the total number of children will be in line with the ratio table below, as per Ofsted recommendations.
- There is a main contact for safeguarding on the day. This will be an individual who has been DBS checked.
- The main contact has access to emergency contact details and other relevant details (e.g. information about picking up arrangements for vulnerable people).
- A vulnerable person is not be left alone with an adult, unless that adult is DBS checked and carrying out regulated activity.

- Two adults (one DBS checked) should be the last to leave a venue once the activity has finished and will be responsible for ensuring vulnerable people get home safely.
- In the event of a joint activity with e.g. a school the KLFC Named Person should liaise with the appropriate safeguarding lead from said organisation in order to determine a policy on photography and video.

Child to adult ratio table

Childs age	Number of adults	Number of children
0-2	1	3
2-3	1	4
4-8	1	6
9-12	1	8

Working with parents/guardians

If a child or young person wishes to take part in King’s Lynn Festival Chorus activities written permission (email is fine) should be obtained from parents/guardians where appropriate, and before the activity takes place. Written permission should include: emergency contact details, any relevant pick-up arrangements – including permission for another adult to pick up the child or young person after the activity has finished, and permission for said child or young person to be photographed during activities — with the understanding that these may be used for media and marketing purposes.

Procedures for raising safeguarding concerns and incidents of abuse

- If any member, staff or volunteer in King’s Lynn Festival Chorus witnesses, suspects or is informed of a witnessed or suspected case of abuse they should immediately report it to the named safeguarding officer: Gina Hart
- If the named person is not available, or is involved in or connected to, the abuse, it should be reported to the Committee Chair Veronica Hutchby or a DBS checked adult: Veronica Hutchby, Gina Hart, Tom Appleton or Ben Horden.
- If an individual wishes to report an incident of abuse against themselves they should report it to the named safeguarding officer or an individual they trust.

Procedures for dealing with concerns and incidents of abuse

The named person (or person reported in their absence) will first make a decision based on the immediacy of the concern and the following two factors:

1. If the vulnerable person is in immediate danger or needs emergency medical attention – call the police and/or ambulance service.

2. If the person at the centre of the allegation is working with vulnerable persons at the current time – remove them, in a sensitive manner, from direct contact with vulnerable people and follow the procedures below.

If none of the above applies the named person will:

- Make a note of the concerns reported to them.
- Speak with committee members to decide how to handle the reported abuse. Excluding any committee members who are involved in the incident.
- Escalate the report by either:
  - Raising concerns with the police – for serious or possible criminal offences.
  - Requesting involvement of social care department if concerned that a vulnerable person is in need of protection.
  - An internal investigation – for less serious incidents where they feel internal mediation will be successful.
- Where cases are escalated the committee will cooperate with the police or local authority in dealing with the reported incident.
- Where an internal investigation takes place the committee will:
  - Inform all parties involved of the reported abuse as soon as possible.
  - Inform the family/guardians of the person reported as being abused of the incident (only with consent in young adults deemed to be Fraser competent).
  - Arrange separate meetings with both parties within 10 days of the reported incident. A joint meeting may be arranged if appropriate.
    - Both parties should be given the chance to bring a friend or representative to the meeting.
    - Meetings will be attended by the named safeguarding officer and at least one other committee member.
    - All parties will also be invited to submit a written statement in advance of the meeting.
  - Once meetings have taken place the committee will decide on next steps and communicate them to all parties in writing within 5 days. They will be either:
    - Escalate the incident to the relevant authority.
    - Further investigation – with established procedures and timelines to work towards a resolution.
    - A decision or resolution.

Resolution and disciplinary action

- If abuse is found to have taken place any final resolution or decision will be taken in the best interest of the person who has suffered the abuse and the best interests King's Lynn Festival Chorus.
- Any disciplinary action will be taken in line within the King's Lynn Festival Chorus constitution.
