Orkney Field Club - Data Protection and Privacy Notice Summary

What this means for you:

- As a Registered Scottish Charity (No. SCO12459), we collect and store your details securely only in pursuit of legitimate interest and administrative purposes. This enables us to contact you with news, updates and information regarding Club activities. To protect your privacy we use blind e-mail addresses when contacting our members.
- You have the right to view, amend or delete any personal information that we hold about you.
- We do not share information with Third Parties unless you give consent for a stated purpose
- Your personal data will be deleted from the database within 18 months of you ceasing to be a member.
- We sometimes take photographs of club activities for promotional and social media purposes. We tell you if this is likely to happen to give you the opportunity not to be included and individuals are only identified with their consent.

The full text of our Data Protection and Privacy Notice can be found on our website <http://www.orkneycommunities.co.uk/fieldclub> in the “join us” area
