Last Chance For Some Kiwi Quirk!

Soond Cinema's New Zealand film season will finish on Thursday 10th January 2019 with a very off-the-wall romantic comedy. In Kiwi culture, sharing kai is at the heart of everything we do through our 'bring a plate' custom, which is totally bewildering for visitors and new residents who usually arrive at their first such gathering clutching an EMPTY dinner plate!

In true Kiwi style, I would like to celebrate the success of our first film season with some kai, by sharing a popular Kiwi 'bring a plate' recipe which is fun to make, interesting to eat and will make sure that should you ever visit New Zealand you will be armed and dangerous with a killer 'bring a plate'. Ka pai!

Kiwi Party Cheese Ball

You will need

- 250g cream cheese
- 1 medium onion finely chopped
- 4 gherkins finely chopped
- 2 cups grated cheese
- 4 tablespoons Tomato relish (or any other relish of your choice)
- Pumpkin seeds (or Sunflower seeds or finely chopped nuts)

You can also try a different version with sundried tomatoes, spring onions, dried apricots and roasted crushed pistachio nuts if you are feeling brave!

Now for the fun part

- Place all ingredients except the pumpkin seeds into a bowl.
- Mix together with a wooden spoon.
- Be patient, keep mixing until all the grated cheese is blended in.
- Taste, add more grated cheese if you wish (who needs encouragement to add more cheese?)
- Divide the mixture and shape it into 3 balls.
- Roll each ball in pumpkin seeds to give a generous covering to the outside of each ball.
- Refrigerate.
- Eat with crackers, chips, bread sticks, cut vegetables etc!
- But most of all ENJOY!

Anyone interested in finding out more about which films are being shown by Soond Cinema over the winter months, should email Carole opheliasparkle@yahoo.com or Lynne lynnecollinson3@gmail.com or leave their contact details at the Boathouse office.

Due to the conditions of the Shapinsay Development Trust's MPLC umbrella charity licence we are not permitted to publically advertise which films we are showing which is why you need to be on the Soond Cinema 'list' for us to be able to give you more information.

Nga mihi o te tau hou (Happy New Year!)
