

Stromness Drama Club March 2019 update

SCDA One Act Play Festival Results

Stromness Drama Club were astonished and delighted to come home on Friday night with the Challenge Cup for First Place for "Shakers", the Orcadian Youth Trophy for "A Handbag" and the Corsie Cup for Play Depicting Best Moment of Theatre for "A Handbag"!

This means the "Shakers" cast head to the Northern Divisional Finals in Brechin the weekend of 21-23 March (alongside St Andrews Drama Club and Palace Players), and the "A Handbag" cast head all the way through to Kirkwall for the Northern Divisional Youth Finals in the Orkney Theatre on Saturday 16 March.

Well done to both casts ("Shakers" - Imogen Kerr, Barbara Scollay, Lorraine Giles and Anna Gardiner; "A Handbag" - Audun Towrie, Savannah Taylor, Lewis Burgon, Hamish Burgon, Jayden Taylor and Oliver Johnston); the director (yes, of both!), Graham Garson; and the production team for both plays of Michael McLaughlin, Phyllis McLaughlin, Colin Paice, Mike Partridge and Jamie Robson.

Stromness Play Repeats

We will be having a repeat performance of our two prize-winning (how many times can we mention that?!) drama festival entries alongside the excellent Stromness Academy Players (performing "13 Ways to Screw Up Your College Interview") on Tuesday 12 March in the Stromness Academy Lecture Theatre starting at 7.30pm. Entry is at the door, £6 for adults and £4 for school pupils, with the funds split between SDC and SA

SCDA Northern Divisional Youth Final

Our "A Handbag" cast will be performing in the Orkney Theatre on Saturday 16 March as part of the Northern Divisional Youth Final - and we'd love to see a good audience there supporting them and the other casts coming up from south.

The performances start at 5pm as there are four plays plus the adjudication to get through and tickets are available from Findlay's

Players.

This gives the club's two casts a chance to perform in front of an audience again before they take part in the next stages of their respective competitions so we look forward to seeing a big turnout.

Please note, strong language is used in "Shakers" and "A Handbag".

Photo Shop in Kirkwall so don't miss out on seeing some very talented youth teams perform!
