Additional Items:

Police Report circulated prior to meeting. PC Pollock/Fraser spoke to this report and answered questions, particularly on youth disorder in Whiteinch/Victoria Park area. Police are collecting all CCTV in area and liaising with Campus Officers at local schools to charge relevant individuals. Increased police patrol in area and park between hours of 2-11pm. Police encourage any photos/videos to be emailed to them (GreaterGlasgowLPSTPartick@scotland.police.uk). Residents should not hesitate to contact 111 or 999 (if immediate danger/damage to property).

3 Matters arising:

- 3.1. N Lovelock from Glasgow Eco Trust joined meeting via Zoom and presented on Community Connections for Climate Action. He outlined hopes for a liveable neighbourhood program for our area and a sustainable transport/travel plan for Whiteinch and Scotstoun. There is a planned community engagement program between May and July and asked for input from WCC. Agreed that C McGeoch would be WCC rep with M McCrae as support. N Lovelock was thanked and left the meeting.
- 3.2 Hustings – A successful hustings took place at Whiteinch Centre on 21st April at 7pm. W Walker will thank the Whiteinch Centre for their support and use of hall. 2 microphones and 2 microphone stands were purchased for the event and now sit in WCC inventory.
- 3.3 National Planning Framework 4– Husting sub-group will lead on this, discuss whole area plan for Whiteinch and tie in with N Lovelock and Ecotrust.
- 3.4 Heart of Scotstoun Volunteer Day – C McGeoch checking with the Centre regarding the volunteer day.
