1. Did her best on a not very interesting subject
2. I just found the lecturer difficult to hear - was it the mike or is it just old age creeping on?
3. Gave an insight into Russian history as well as the development of communist art.
4. Of special interest to me as 1900 to 1989 my area of research...at one time! Especially the role of women in Russia and USSR.
5. A real eye-opener of a lecture. Lots of food for thought. She should be invited back for another lecture covering Russia.
6. Better than I expected. Everyone said what an enjoyable, interesting lecture.
7. I was far from the only person struggling to keep awake!
8. Monotonous voice.....hard not to fall asleep
9. At the back it was sometimes difficult to make out what she was saying, but a most interesting lecture.
10. More interesting than initially expected!
11. Absolutely fantastic only sorry it was so short
12. Thoroughly enjoyable. Fascinating history. More from this speaker please
13. Excellent, informative lecture about a period of history and the art it inspired that is not well known. As the speaker is a native of St Petersburg the information was of a very high quality.
14. The best one yet!
15. The speaker spoke too fast which made clarity poor. She also changed slides too quickly on a couple of occasions which prevented fully examining what was being shown.
16. A great informative lecture on a subject I found v interesting about a regime still shrouded in mystery .
17. Found voice a little monotonous and muffled. Interesting content but could be livelier delivery
18. An hour seemed too short to listen to this speaker. One of the best lectures I've attended.
19. Excellent, learnt a lot

20. Fascinating historical detail and images to match. Hugely interesting and enjoyable. Many thanks for organising this.
21. Best lecture I have heard
22. Infinitely more interesting than I thought it would be - much wider ranging.e.g. That lots of the art produced was actually for world consumption - and that Eisenstein was really only popular in the west! Fascinating talk - and wonderful newsreel of Lenin's funeral and whole politicians that Stalin managed to remove -permanently.
23. Good to learn of the different ways that the post-revolutionaries promulgated their ideas. I was particularly interested in the trains and boats as a medium for spreading ideology to the masses. Most informative and enjoyable, thank you.
24. Well presented and interesting subject of which we know very little
25. This was an area of Russian art about which I was not particularly knowledgeable therefore I found it extremely interesting.
