Included in the ticket, you can take part in the live discussion on 23rd May.

Discussion: Sunday 23 May, 7.30pm (BST)

A share of the proceeds will go towards BAMSA which funds much of the research into the sociology of bridge at Stirling University.

It would also be great if you will encourage your non-bridge playing family or friends to watch it. All for one ticket. Perhaps they may be curious about what you get up to when you disappear for hours on end to play cards? They are likely to see aspects of the game which surprise them, and they may even be enticed to join a taster session or start lessons.
