

Bridge Education Opportunities in Inverness

Bridge is a game of skill and tactics which can be played and enjoyed by people of all ages, at whichever level you choose to settle - but the most important word there is ENJOYED. It has been shown to benefit young and old alike, developing strategic thinking in the young and delaying and slowing the progress of dementia in the older generation. It is also an absorbing fun pastime.

Ness Club Improvers Night

Tuesday 6.50-10.00 Ness Bridge Club, Inverness Caledonian Social Club Greig St

Improvers play on Tuesday night is relaxed and friendly, provides an ideal 'next step' for beginners to get a first taste of club play. There are experienced players on hand to help and encourage, so beginners can settle in, find their feet and build up confidence. The aim is for Tuesday night players to progress to Thursday night play when they feel happy to do so. Players just turn up with or without a partner.

Four Directions Bridge Club

Alternate Mondays from 2nd Sept in St Stephen's Church Hall, 215-4.15

The Four Directions Bridge club is a fun, topic- based learning club where members can request topics. For further information contact Margaret Telford 01463-240436, magstelford@hotmail.com

U3A Bridge Group

Friday mornings in Trinity Church Halls from 10.30-1.00pm.

U3A is a self -help learning based group for people who are retired or approaching retirement.

The Bridge group offers three groups

1. Beginners follow a 20- week course plus some time for revision and small tournaments. The class is suitable for people with no bridge experience.
2. The second group will start at lesson 8 and caters for people who have slight experience or wish to run through the course again.
3. The 3rd group is essentially a play group, but after 2 hours of play they are given an insight into the thinking in the bidding and play of a very experienced player who has already played the hands. There will also be occasional short lessons on topics not covered in beginners' course.
