4th October 2019

So, we reach Friday again and another incredible fortnight which has seen so many things change, happen and improve!

We have welcomed Nursery, a new baby and Ofsted inspectors. All these things add to how well we face challenges and tackle any problem we come across. 'If we ask for courage, do we get given courage, or opportunities to be courageous?'

The next two weeks coming up are also exciting—for the children's learning, sporting events, and a sport café for you to join us.

Our values this half term are:

Headlice...

Once a week

Take a peek

There are still many children with long hair not being tied up. If your child has their hair down, we will ask them to put it up. This should limit the spread of nits.

The small group of Year 6 children served with confidence and were thrilled to find there was almost £220 raised.

The next fundraising activity will be a School Cinema on Tuesday 29th October where we will be showing the new film of Aladdin. The money raised will go towards subsidising the residential.

Thank you to all who responded to ParentView—the Ofsted questionnaire online. All those who took time to rate our school and 100% said they would recommend us—we very much like the feedback!

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs Cunningham following the birth of their second son Iori on Monday this week. He weighed a healthy 7lb 8oz.

Mr & Mrs Cunningham thank you all for the kind messages you have sent in.
