Skógræktarfélag Íslands er landssamband skógræktarfélaganna í landinu, stofnað 1930. Markmið félagsins er að vinna framgangi skóg- og trjáræktar í landinu og stuðla að hvers konar umhverfisbótum.

Meginþættir starfsemi félagsins eru útgáfa, umsjón skógræktarverkefna, almenn fræðsla og samskipti við skógræktarfélag.

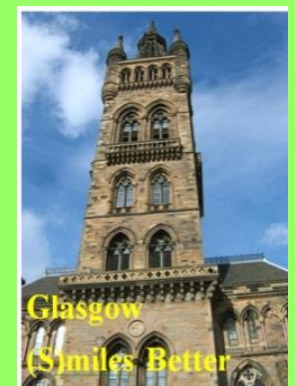

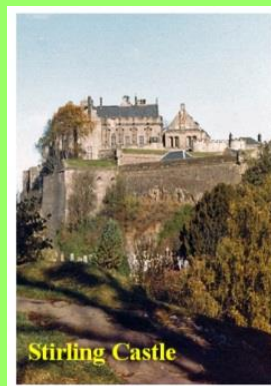

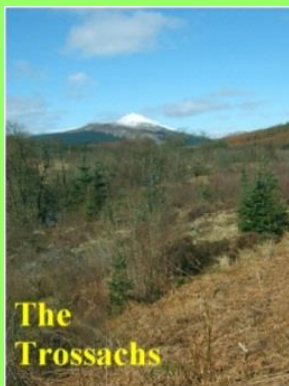

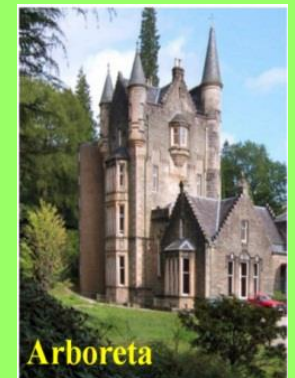

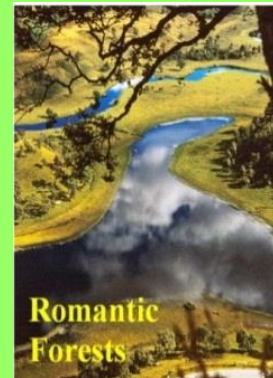

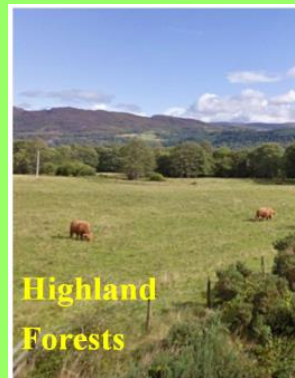

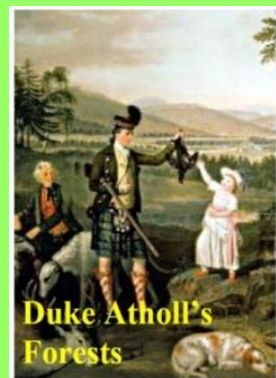

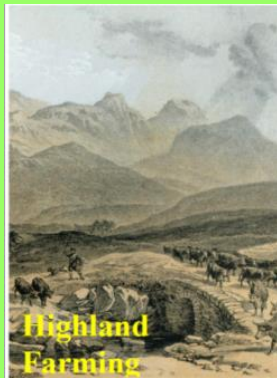

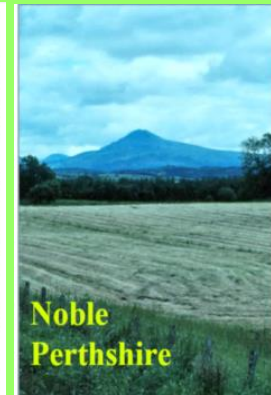

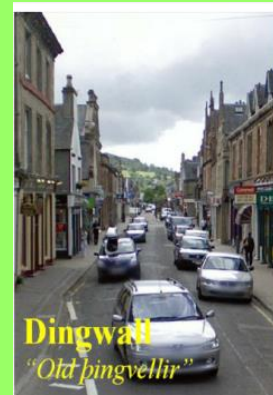

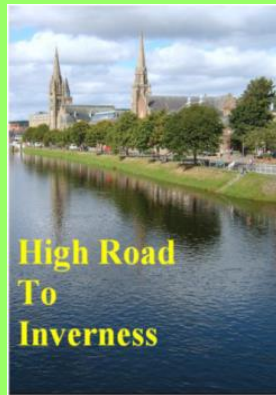

The Icelandic Forestry Association (IFA) is a national umbrella organisation for around 60 local and regional forestry associations throughout Iceland. The IFA was founded in 1930. The goal of the IFA is to further the interests of forestry in Iceland and encourage all kinds of environmental improvements.

The main activities of the association are publication, supervision of various forestry projects, general education and guidance and interaction with the member associations.
