

Ross Presbytery Prayer Diary 2021

The purpose of this Prayer Diary is to provide some short and practical suggestions to help you pray, when you can, throughout each month for the wider work of the Gospel in Ross Presbytery.

Some Scriptures which encourages us to Support One Another in Prayer:

This, then, is how you should pray:

“Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts,

as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. Matthew 6:9-13

In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans. And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God’s people in accordance with the will of God.

Romans 8:26-27

Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray. Is anyone happy? Let them sing songs of praise. James 5:13

May my prayer be set before you like incense; May the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice. Psalm 141:2

I call on you, my God, for you will answer me; turn your ear to me and hear my prayer. Psalm 17:6

1st July, 2021: Our Front-Line Workers

Give thanks to God for all our NHS Staff who continue to work tirelessly in the care of others.

Ask God to protect and watch over all those who will continue to give of themselves for others in the coming months.

Pray for the ongoing roll-out of the vaccines for Covid-19, and that these will be used by God to bring this virus more fully under control.

Ask God to provide resilience, stamina and his rest to those who are exhausted from the intensity of giving themselves in the service of others.

2nd July, 2021: Urray and Kilchrist (Muir of Ord)

Minister: Rev James Munro (Locum)

Church website link: <https://www.muirofordcofs.co.uk/>

Church Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/urrayandkilchrist.churchofscotland>

Loving and heavenly father we bring our prayers before you.

We thank you for this amazing world you have given us. Help us to take care of it.

As we see covid restrictions lessen, encourage us all to do the right thing so that the virus becomes manageable and that we help less fortunate countries.

We ask for your healing hand on the families who have been bereaved recently. This will be a difficult time for them and they will be needing your loving support.

We in Urray and Kilchrist Church feel particularly blessed. The Rev. Monika Redman has responded to our call. We know this is the result of diligent work by our nominating committee but mainly the power of hours of prayer.

Give Monika and her family strength during what will be a very busy time for her. We are looking forward to working together with God's guidance.

What an exciting time.

We know that none of this would have been possible without you.

All these things we ask in you precious name.

Amen.

Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland. Isaiah 43: 18-19

We continue to give God thanks for the children who are coming along to Sunday School. There are a few regulars we haven't seen yet but continue to pray that they will appear soon.

As a congregation, we are mourning the loss of Richard Brown. He gave so much of himself to the church and will be greatly missed in many ways. His faith and trust in God, throughout his illness, was amazing and we pray that this will have an impact on many people both within and outwith the church.

Continue to pray for the future - the way forward for the congregation and changes that will have to be made as we enter a Post-Covid period.

4th July, 2021: Alness Parish Church

Minister: Rev Michael Macdonald (Auxiliary)

Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows. James 1:17

Please give thanks for the scientists who have created the vaccines and that many in our congregations have received their first jab and are encouraged by it. Give thanks that we are once again able to worship together in person.

Ask God for wisdom and practical help as we update our technology to be able to reach out into the community.

Pray for the young folk of our community and church, that they may be comfortable returning to school after their Easter Break and that once again we will be able to welcome them to Church.

I thirst for you, my whole being longs for you, in a dry and parched land where there is no water. I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld your power and your glory. Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify you. Psalms 63:2-3

Let us pray for us all, in the year ahead, to find the strength, love and determination to identify and help those in need.

Pray 'for those in our, and indeed all, congregations unable to attend either virtual or physical services during this continuing lockdown.'

Pray, especially, for the minister and kirk sessions that the Lord would open up ways to reach out in practical and, where necessary, financial ways in the local community at this difficult time.

As we all move to a new stage in the pandemic, help us all to have a vision of how the church should and needs to be; truly loving God and loving others.

Grant wisdom and courage to the office bearers, as the congregations deal with impact of the pandemic.

Pray for our church communities. May they build up one another, whether meeting in church buildings or on-line.

Currently, there are over 100,000 people living with dementia in Scotland and this figure increases by approximately 20,000 every year. 66% of residents in care homes are living with dementia requiring specialist care.

- Thank God for the creative ways that care homes kept connected with relatives and friends of residents during lockdown.
- Thank God for the technology which enabled worship to continue online and can now continue to do so should local lockdowns occur.
- Pray for those vulnerable folk who may have lost confidence and be fearful of mixing back in community activities for both social and medical reasons that they will feel God's support through their community.

10th July, 2021: Contin linked with Fodderty & Strathpeffer
Minister: Rev James Bissett (Locum)

Church website link(s): <http://www.strathpefferchurchofscotland.org/>

Look to the LORD and his strength; seek his face always. 1 Chronicles 16:11

Please pray for the locum minister, office bearers and those associated with Christ's church who seek to serve God faithfully in these local communities.

Psalms 32:8 says "I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you and watch over you.....but the Lord's unfailing love surrounds the man who trusts in him."

And James 1:5 says "If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him."

Isaiah 30:21 says "And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, 'This is the way, walk in it,' when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left."

Psalms 119:105 says "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."

John 14:26 says "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you."

So, in the spirit of the verses above, let's pray:

Loving Father, help us to cultivate spiritual disciplines, so that we are more able to receive what you have to tell us, and more willing to do what you require. May we not only come to you with our needs, our praise, and our thanksgiving, but make a habit of spending time in worshipful listening. Help us not to allow the distractions of social media, the bickering of politicians, the fear and uncertainty of not understanding guidelines, the busyness of life and the longing for a return to some sort of normality drown out your still small voice. Help us to be guided in all things by you, rather than our own imperfect judgment. Mighty God, if we try and live our life without you, we will fail. Long ago, you sent your presence in a towering cloud and burning pillar of fire to guide your people through the wilderness. When we don't know which way to go, we ask that we would know your presence near us, nudging us and guiding us in the right direction. We do not want to go anywhere without you, Lord, because being in your presence is the best place for us. Protect us from harm and direct our steps. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.

11th July, 2021: Children's Ministries

Casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you. 1 Peter 5:7

Isaiah 55:10-11 - For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

Pray that God would continue to bless the congregation and Parish of Invergordon and that God would continue to encourage the congregation, Nominating Committee, and office bearers as they prayerfully seek the Lord for a new minister.

Pray for our local businesses who have been affected in so many ways by the current Corona Virus Pandemic.

Intercede for those in our communities who are facing uncertainty over the future in regard to their employment, etc.

"We read (lectio)
under the eye of God (meditatio)
until the heart is touched (oratio)
And leaps to flame (contemplatio)"

Please pray for the congregation

- preparing for the sale of Logie Easter Church

This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

1 John 4:9-11

Please pray for the minister, office bearers and those associated with Christ's church who seek to serve God faithfully in the parish of Kiltearn.

21st July, 2021: Youth Ministries

God's hand in leading and guiding and blessing all youth ministries as they develop and flourish in the coming days.

Please pray for all our school teachers, college and university lecturers, and all those involved in educating those associated with our communities. Remember all those who have now returned to face-to-face education, from the youngest to the oldest.
Pray for the mental health of so many who are clearly suffering from the difficulties created by the lockdown restrictions.

<https://www.ijmuk.org/our-work>.

24th July, 2021: Informal Drop-In Ministries

This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers. If anyone has material possessions and sees his brother in need but has no pity on him, how can the love of God be in him?
Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth. 1 John 3:16-18
Please pray for those who are lonely and vulnerable. For example, those who miss the weekly opportunities to meet for a cuppa and chat at informal drop in ministries provided by the Church.
As we look to the future, and the possibility of meeting in person, may God enable these valuable ministries to be re-established and developed safely and wisely.

26th July, 2021: Our Government and Leaders

I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people — for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. 1 Timothy 2: 1-2

Pray for our politicians, those whom God has given the responsibility to govern our land. Ask God to help our leaders to make wise and right decisions.

Pray that He will direct the paths of those who know Christ, and that His sovereignty will overrule in all things.

Pray for all those who have been elected following the recent Scottish election.

29th July, 2021: Presbytery Prayers

Pray for Ross Presbytery, and indeed each Presbytery of the Church of Scotland as they debate, discuss and agree their response to the same-sex marriage proposals which came down under the Barrier Act at the recent General Assembly.

May God's people stand up to what His word clearly teaches on this matter.

In Matthew 19:4-6, we find what Jesus (quoting Genesis 2:24) taught, adding his own endorsement: "Haven't you read," he replied, "that at the beginning the Creator 'made them male and female,' and said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh'? So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate."

30th July, 2021: St Clements, Dingwall

Minister: Rev Bruce Dempsey

Church website link: <https://www.dingwallstclements.org.uk/welcome.htm>

Matthew 11:28: “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.”

Pray for all who are still suffering from the impacts of Covid-19, especially in countries where there is not enough equipment, beds, and vaccines to relieve the suffering (e.g. India). Pray that the West will continue to supply and support them, and help the process of recovery.

Pray for the doctors and nurses and all who care for the sick and the bereaved. Lord God, may You be with them and uplift their spirit, so that you enable them to cope with whatever challenges they face.

Pray for all those who make decisions on our behalf, governments and all those who have been elected to represent the people. May their decisions be honest and transparent. May they call on you Lord for guidance and wisdom, so that they may represent truth and justice in all their actions.

Lord, we pray for your body, the Church. We pray for the things discussed and the decisions made at the General Assembly, that they would be in line with your laws, Lord.

Bless all Christian ministers, their wives and their families. May they continue to serve you each day, empowered by your Holy Spirit, in order to fulfil the purposes you have for each one. Pray for all the congregations, especially those whose churches are closing at this time. Guide them with your love and wisdom, knowing that you will never leave them nor forsake them. Bless them all in these uncertain times.

Pray for the lonely, the sad, the mentally ill and those marginalised by society. May they be comforted by your loving presence, and received professional help where needed. We pray all these things through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

31st July, 2021: Pray for Yourselves

Psalms 55:22: Cast your burden on the Lord, and he will sustain you; he will never permit the righteous to be moved.

Bring before God in prayer... all your joys, all your sorrows, all your cares and burdens ... everything!
