Matters Arising.

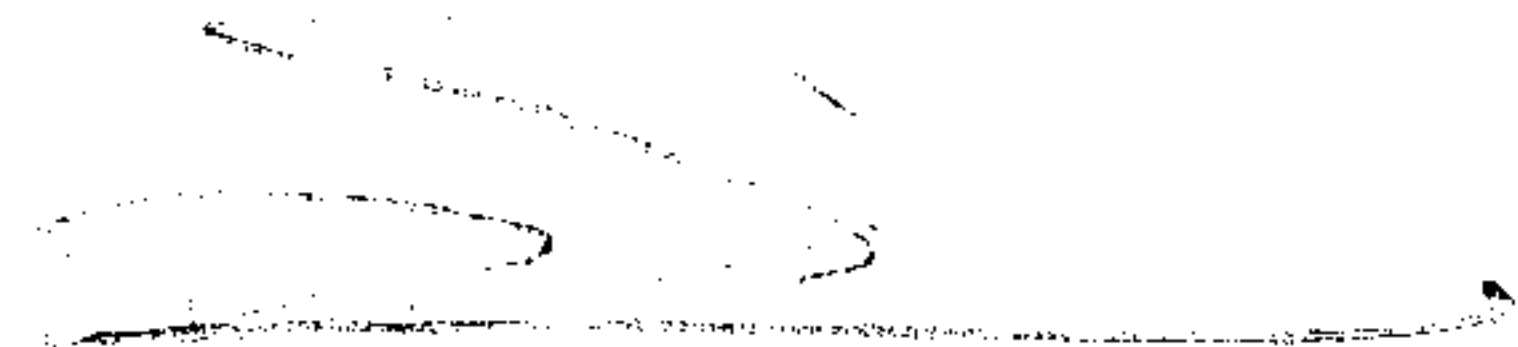

There were no matters arising

Defibrillator

Cllr. Newsam informed the meeting that the Parish Council's application for a lottery grant had been unsuccessful.

Cllr. Newsam had received a communication setting out Graham Stuart's Cadey campaign. The objective of his campaign is to help in achieving an installation in the 60 communities that have still to have one. It was proposed that Cllr. Wykes would be the "Cadey Champion" for Skeffling Parish Council

Proposed Cllr. Newsam
Seconded Cllr. Sizer
Vote: carried unanimously

LTH. DEC 2018.

It was suggested that the Village Hall Committee would be asked to increase prices at the forthcoming Bonfire Night to help raise funds. There would also be a Donation Box marked up to inform everyone that any funds raised would go towards the cost of the Defibrillator.

Proposed Cllr. Newsam

Seconded Cllr. J. Sizer

Vote: carried unanimously

Emergency Plan

There had been no progress regarding the implementation of the Emergency Plan for the village. Some Councillors did not think the Emergency Plan was necessary.

Cllr. Newsam agreed to check whether it is a legal requirement for the Parish Council to have an Emergency Plan.

GDPR

After some discussion it was suggested that until we receive any clear direction on this we leave it until we receive further clarification on what is required.

Proposed Cllr. Newsam

Seconded Cllr. Sizer

Vote: carried unanimously

Street Scene

Cllr. Payne is to contact Ruth Wilson regarding the state of the footpaths and other action points not addressed arising from the 2017 Street Scene visit.

Churchyard

It was agreed to carry out work in the churchyard during November.

Correspondence

There was no correspondence

Any Other Business

Cllr. Sizer confirmed that BT had erected some posts along Humber/Church Lane. These were too close to the road restricting the access for large machinery.

It was agreed that we would write to BT and ask them to move them.

Cllr Turnbull was to confirm the contact details.

Public Speaking
