Organ music before the service

Hymn 1. 165 Father of heaven, whose love profound (in church)

TUNE: RIEVAULX

1. Father of heaven, whose love profound a ransom for our souls hath found, before thy throne we sinners bend,
to us they pard'ning love extend.

2. Almighty Son, incarnate Word, our Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Lord,
before thy throne we sinners bend,
to us thy saving grace extend.

3. Eternal Spirit, by whose breath the soul is raised from sin and death, before thy throne we sinners bend,
to us thy quick'ning pow'r extend.

4. Thrice Holy! Father, Spirit, Son; mysterious Godhead, Three in One,
before thy throne we sinners bend, grace, pardon, life, to us extend.

[You can hear it again sung in Grimsby Minster and recorded during lockdown in 2020 on <https://youtu.be/YoL5wnDyJfg>]

9. First Reading Genesis 50: 15–21 (via ZOOM)

Psalm 103: 8–13 ©NIV (in church)

⁸The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love.

⁹He will not always accuse, nor will he harbour his anger forever;

¹⁰he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities.

¹¹For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him;

¹²as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

¹³As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him;

10. Epistle Romans 14: 1-12 (via ZOOM)

Hymn 2. 88 Brother, sister (v. 1, 5, 6)
TUNE. Richard Gillard (arr.) (in church)

1. Brother, sister, let me serve you, let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant, too.

5. When we sing to God in heaven, we shall find such harmony, born of all we've known together of Christ's love and agony.

6. Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant, too.

All things come from you, Lord
And of your own have we given you.

Standing at the lectern the Lay Minister says:

In fellowship with the whole Church of God, with all who have been brought together by the Holy Spirit to worship on this day, and who have celebrated the Eucharist, let us rejoice that we are called to be part of the body of Christ.

Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

The Lay Minister then moves to the centre of the congregation and leads the following prayer with congregational responses in bold print below.

We thank you, Lord our God, for this world which you have given us; you never cease to make it new, and you call us to work with you; you accept the work of our hands.

Glory to you for ever

You have made humankind in your image; each one of us is fashioned in your likeness, and we are able to recognise your face in the faces of our brothers and sisters.

Glory to you for ever

You have never desired to live apart from us, and you have taught us to know you through the Law and the Prophets, the Apostles and Evangelists, who told us the marvellous story of your love.

Glory to you for ever

And you have come to us in your Son, Jesus Christ. In him you have walked along our roads, looked at us with human eyes, done the kind of things that we do, and shared with us the joy that can never be lost.

Glory to you for ever

Now you give us his Body and Blood, and we give ourselves to you. Through the death and resurrection of your Son, through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us, we can make you our eternal home.

Glory to you for ever

So, with all Christians who are gathered together today everywhere, throughout the world, and with the great procession of your Saints, as brothers and sisters we pray to you, as our Saviour has taught us:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Do not bring us to the time of trial but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The minister goes to the table and receives communion

Music during the communion

Closing hymn: 662 There's a wideness in God's mercy

TUNE: DAILY DAILY (in church)

1 There's a wideness in God's mercy, like the wideness of the sea;
there's a kindness in his justice, which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth's sorrows are more felt than up in heaven; there is no place where earth's failings have such gracious judgement giv'n.

2. But we make his love too narrow by false limits of our own; and we magnify his strictness with a zeal he will not own.
There is plentiful redemption through the blood that has been shed, there is joy for all the members in the sorrows of the Head.

3 For the love of God is broader than the scope of human mind, and the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more simple, we should take him at his word; and our hearts would find assurance by the promise of the Lord.
