Rewilding - How Can We Restore Nature? with Dave Savage

Monday 22nd February 2021, 7.30pm

One way of restoring nature and reversing declines is to re-colonise an area with native species. By reintroducing animals to the right environment with space to flourish, there is hope! See how we can help beavers, red squirrels, hen harriers and other species to thrive again. The future's wild!

A Photographers Wild Britain with Nick Martin

Monday 15th March 2021, 7.30pm

From reptiles on the Dorset heaths to the sea bird colonies of the Shetlands we travel around Britain describing some of the wild places and the special animals and birds that live there. Enjoy stunning images of the Red Kites of Mid Wales, swirling flocks of waders, lekking black grouse, basking adders and more!

The City with Paul Hobson

Monday 19th April 2021, 7.30pm

Ever thought about visiting your local concrete jungle for your next nature trip? Well you should! Cities can be havens for wildlife such as peregrine falcons, pigeons, orchids, otters, kingfishers and even dippers! You will be enlightened by Paul's insight into the wildlife of urban Britain.
