The Magazine of Crook Peak Parish (Oct/Nov 2022 Edition)

We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in Him.....and so we will be with the Lord for ever. Therefore encourage each other with these words.

1 Thess 4, verse 14 and 17

It is very sad to lose someone you love and at this time of mourning for our much loved Queen, our hearts go out to the Royal family. It is so reassuring to know that she had a very strong faith and will be united with her Lord in heaven. May we and all those who have put their trust in Him praise and thank Him for her life.

'Hold onto Good News'

Dear Friends,

It is with profound sadness that I heard our dearest Queen Elizabeth II had passed away. We are so grateful for Her late Majesty's extraordinary dedication to her Country and family. May she rest in peace. In light of this very sad news, as we look forward to all that will be gathered in at our harvest time, it restores our faith in what our hard work can produce, after ploughing through testing times of previous years. In our hymn, 'We Plough the Fields and Scatter', it reminds us that our harvest not only provides us with food to keep us through the winter, but also our seed for next year's crops to grow. We also have to ensure that it is safely stored and planted for our next harvest, allowing us to share the fruits of our labour with our neighbours. We are thankful for our community spirit and the way in which we ourselves 'gather together', especially when times are difficult or stressful. A helping hand is always appreciated and the power of a few kind words is immense. Remember; "The Lord works in mysterious ways, his wonders to perform" Our thoughts also turn to climate change which is devastating many lives, families, and livelihoods across the world. This is when we often turn to prayer, hold onto our faith and put our trust into God's hands. We must work together to preserve our beautiful world, as we are only the custodians for the future generations to come.

Jane Jay – Church Warden – Loxton

Church Services Explained (Part 2) Holy Communion Common Worship by Ruth Orriss

What is It? - It is an hour long service at which we celebrate Holy Communion by sharing bread and wine. We follow the modern words in this service and all responses during the service are spoken. There are songs and the music is provided by guitars, the organ or sometimes recorded backing tracks. The song words are generally projected on a screen, and you will be given a service booklet at the door. In between the songs there will be readings from the Bible; prayers and a talk of 10-15 minutes. Most attendees will then go up to the front, where the priest will give each of them a piece of bread, or a wafer, and a sip or dip ('intincture') of wine. You are welcome to stay in your pew if you want to. If you want to go forward for a blessing, just take a book in your hands and bow your head as the priest approaches. If you have mobility difficulties the priest can come to you. There is sometimes a collection when a bag will be passed along each pew. No one will mind at all if you just pass it on. Or there may be a plate by the door should you want to make a donation. As the numbers are generally around 25, we sit in the pews wherever we feel comfortable. There is normally tea and coffee served at the end of the service if you want to stay and chat.

When is it? - This service is currently at 10am on the 2nd and 4th Sunday of each month. It will rotate around all 6 of our churches; look on the back of 'Contact' to check which one on which date.

Why go to this service? - Jane Murray says: I like this form of service because there is a balance of formal and informal elements and some Bible teaching which often is relevant to the week ahead. It is also an opportunity to gather with friends and neighbours to praise and pray to God, and take part in a ceremonial meal like Jesus did with his disciples.

What should I do if I want to attend? - Just come into the church just before 10am and take your seat. If you would like someone to pick you up or meet you outside, please ring Jane on 01934 732845.

Save Our 126 (Extract from Letter Received by David Duckworth)

The 126 is a vital lifeline to many of the most vulnerable people in communities along the Cheddar Valley. It links communities to doctor's surgeries in Wells, Cheddar and Axbridge; the hospital in Weston; schools and colleges along the route; as well as shopping and socialising. First Bus claim the route is no longer profitable but I'll be pushing them hard on their numbers. Just last week, they were threatening to cut the 173 instead of the 126 so I'm not sure they're being particularly consistent and I'm determined to get answers. But Somerset and North Somerset Councils do subsidise bus routes in many parts of the county and so if First Bus won't budge, I need your support to force the councils to step in and save the 126. Please sign below and share this with your friends so they sign too. Yours ever, James Heappey, Member of Parliament for Wells

Hedges of the Mendip Hills (By Megan Godley)

The Mendip Hills AONB Service are looking to help farmers and land managers to increase the length of native hedgerows across the area. Since this time last year, the Farming in Protected Landscapes programme has funded 2400 metres of hedgerow planting, and hundreds more metres have been funded for management like hedge-laying. In total nine farms in Cheddar, Hutton, West Harptree, Blagdon, and Priddy have already benefited from support with hedgerows through the Farming in Protected Landscapes programme, with more projects in the pipeline. The patterns hedges weave in the countryside are a link to the past, as generations of farmers create and maintain boundaries to suit their land. Some hedges might be as old as the Romans, others overlay banks built as boundary markers in the Bronze Age, and some are older still, carved out of the Wildwood in Man's early years. Some of these ancient hedgerows can still be found across the AONB, while some exist only as ghostly ridges on the ground, or infield trees that were too big to remove with the rest of the hedge when the field was enlarged. Many of the more regular perpendicular hedges in the Mendip Hills date back to the 1700s and the series of enclosure acts – as do many of the hundreds of miles of drystone walls.

Well-managed hedges can be a tremendous natural capital asset to a farm. They reduce windspeed, lessening soil erosion and crop damage, and provide a shelter for livestock against extreme weather. They stabilise soil with deep roots which hold the soil together and encourage the slow absorption of rainwater. Roots also play a vital role in storing carbon dioxide. Hedgerow plants absorb and lock away carbon in their growing leaves and branches, but they also send some of the carbon into their roots, and combined with the autumnal leaf drop, soils under hedges can contain up to 57% more carbon than soils in the middle of the same field.

For wildlife, the importance of hedgerows in the landscape is unparalleled. They are vital corridors in the landscape, which species can use to navigate and seek shelter in. They are also often rich in wildflowers, cow parsley, red campion, and hedge mustard are common species to find creeping out from the bottom of a hedgerow. The variety in plants found in a hedgerow allows them to support a huge density and diversity of invertebrate life. For bird life, hedgerows provide excellent opportunities for shelter, nesting, and feeding. Sixteen of the nineteen bird species in the Farmland Bird Index are associated with hedgerows, ten of which use hedges as their primary habitat. The number of bird species, as well as the number of individual birds, tends to increase with the size of the hedge and the number of woody species of plant that the hedgerow is made from. Having a variety of hedgerow plants that flower and fruit at different times of the year means there is a longer period of abundant food – hawthorn and dog rose are particularly valuable food sources that can last throughout winter. Come Springtime, when birds are beginning to pair up for breeding, trees and taller plants in the hedgerow are important as song posts, from which males attract mates or defend their territory. If you farm or manage land within the AONB and are looking to increase the hedgerows on your land, or manage them to increase their value for wildlife – get in touch with Megan from the Mendip Hills AONB Service, by email via mendip@mendiphillsaonb.org.uk or phone 01761 462338 to request a free, impartial advice visit to your holding. The Mendip Hills AONB Service are also working in Partnership with FWAG SouthWest, the National Farmers Union, Somerset Wildlife Trust, and Mendip District Council to run a programme of free sustainable land management workshops across the area – the programme can be found online here (www.somersetwildlife.org/slm-workshops) or request a physical copy by ringing our office. We are working with the NFU to run an event on the 12th October, providing information on Farm Carbon Auditing and Natural Capital Management. Somerset Wildlife Trust and Mendip DC are running an event on the 23rd September looking at green financing, and there are many more to come!

Friends Of Weare Church

FOWC is a small independent charity that raises money to help maintain the ancient building of St. Gregory, Weare. It is run by volunteers from within our village and the financial support we receive comes solely from donations and fund raising. Over the centuries it has been the people of the parish who have managed to keep the building in the good state we appreciate today. This fine tradition needs to be continued and we hope that those of you who are new to the village, or who have not yet joined the Friends, might consider supporting our work. By becoming a Friend, you will be giving invaluable support towards the maintenance and upkeep of our ancient, Grade 1 listed church, ensuring its place in the middle of the village for another 600 years.

Membership is from as little as £25 per year. Forms can be found in the church porch or please contact Anna 07437 612339

Update on proposed new surgery in Wedmore.

As you may be aware the Axbridge & Wedmore Community Health Fund is undertaking a feasibility study for a replacement branch surgery in Wedmore, to provide long-term income for the Fund. Axbridge & Wedmore Medical Practice is part of North Sedgemoor Primary Care Network (PCN). This network is composed of five practices, Axbridge & Wedmore, Cheddar, Brent, Burnham and Highbridge. We have been informed that NHS England and NHS Improvement have very recently instigated a 'Clinical and Estate Strategy' programme across all Primary Care Networks. This review is designed to anticipate future clinical service requirements and the estate that will be needed to fulfil those needs. This review will assess the needs of the whole North Sedgemoor PCN community, and not just Wedmore. This is unlikely to be completed until sometime in 2023. This means that our plans for a 'new surgery' or health facility to replace the existing Wedmore surgery cannot be seen in isolation from the needs of the population covered by the PCN. Therefore our 'new surgery' project must be put on hold and await the outcome of the 'Clinical and Estate Strategy' review from NHS England before progressing plans any further. We will ensure that any work that has been completed so far on this project will be incorporated and taken into consideration in this 'Clinical and Estate Strategy' review. We would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge and thank our donors and those that have worked so hard on this project so far.

Alan Benson, Chair (On behalf of Axbridge and Wedmore Community Health Fund) - 4 August 2022
