

MOTHER

When you died I wanted a sign

Your voice.

A vision at the end of my bed.

A white feather.

I should have known

When you were alive I wanted

Always more than you gave.

And I didn't know how to reach you then.

© Karen Ray 2007