AOCB	Xmas Lights - Thanks to Euan Lawrie and Lewis Harrop for fixing the lights to the lamp posts in the village street. Also to Robbie Milne at Highland Council for his help and advice concerning the lights. Also to Iain McEachern and Forestry Commission for the Christmas tree. Gwen undertook to contact George Grant about a time for setting up the tree and lights. Glencoe Museum - David asked if anyone was available on Sat 11th Dec to attend a committee meeting of Glencoe Museum. Due to the proximity of Christmas and other commitments no one felt able to attend. David to send our apologies. Carol Singing -There will not be a carol service at the Christmas Tree this year. However a Service of Nine Lessons and Carols, for all denominations, will be held in St. Mary's Episcopal Church on 19th Dec at 6.30pm. Invitees - David to invite a member of Northern Constabulary from Glencoe to the next meeting. Grit bins – Members of the CC and other members of the public have spread grit on the roads and footpaths during the recent cold spell. David will phone TEC Services to ask for the bins to be refilled.
