

With a week to go we went to Eden court to see Mother Goose. We all really enjoyed it and did lots of singing, dancing and laughing while we were there.

Iain and Richard went to Eden court the same evening to see the Buddy Holly at Christmas Show. Throughout December we all attended different Christmas Parties.

Most of us went to the Social Club where we had a 2 course Christmas Lunch. We had a great time getting to dance with our friends and Ken dressed up as Santa and drew the raffle for us.

Let's not forget to mention a congratulations to everyone who has celebrated their birthdays since the last newsletter went out: Richard had his birthday on the 1st November, John had
